Mrs Helen Brooks, Property Manager
City Homes Letting Agency, 22 Market Place, Derby, DE1 1QT

Dear Mrs Brooks,

Re: Urgent Plumbing Repair – Leaking Kitchen Sink Pipe at Flat 6

I am writing to report a worsening water leak on the cold water pipe underneath my kitchen sink, which started ten days ago on 4 November.

Although I have placed a plastic bucket under the joint and empty it twice every day, water has soaked into the base of the wooden kitchen unit. The cupboard floor is now damp, swollen, and smelling of mould. I am very worried that if the pipe bursts completely, water will leak through the floorboards into Flat 4 downstairs.

Please could you arrange for a qualified plumber to repair the pipe as soon as possible? I work mornings, so I am at home every weekday after 1:30 pm and all day on Saturday.

Yours sincerely,
Jamie Foster [21/21]

Subject: Suggestion for Staff First Aid & Accident Procedure Refresher

Dear Mr Ross,

I am writing to suggest a short first-aid and emergency procedure refresher session for our leisure centre staff.

Last Saturday afternoon, a customer twisted her ankle while playing badminton in Court 2. Although we helped her sit down safely, the weekend assistants on duty were unsure where the spare cold compresses and the official Accident Report Book were stored because several new staff have joined since our last briefing two years ago.

Running a practical one-hour refresher session would ensure every team member knows how to log minor injuries accurately and locate emergency supplies immediately. Thursday morning between 9:00 am and 10:00 am is our quietest period in the centre, so holding the session then would not disrupt classes.

In the meantime, I am happy to check and restock the reception first-aid kit this afternoon.

Kind regards,

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Faulty Smartphone Screen Replacement (Receipt Ref: QF-1184)

I am writing to complain about a faulty replacement screen fitted to my Samsung Galaxy smartphone at your Reading branch on Tuesday 10 November 2026, for which I paid £65.00 by debit card.

Just three days after collecting the phone, a bright vertical green line appeared down the display and the lower half of the touchscreen stopped responding completely. The phone has been kept in a protective leather case and has not been dropped or exposed to water. Because I rely on my phone for my work shift rota and messages from my child's school, this fault is causing major inconvenience.

Under your advertised 90-day parts and labour guarantee, please fit a working replacement screen free of charge this week or issue a full refund of £65.00.

Subject: Volunteer Application – Bridgewater Community Food & Warm Hub

Dear Ms Shah,

I am writing in response to your poster at the community centre appealing for winter volunteers at the Bridgewater Community Food and Warm Hub.

I have lived in Bridgewater for five years and would love to give a few hours each week to support local families and elderly neighbours during the cold winter months. In my weekday job as a pharmacy stock assistant, I check expiry dates, organise shelves, and chat warmly with elderly customers. I also hold a full, clean UK driving licence and have my own car, so I can help pack food parcels or deliver boxes to housebound residents.

I am free every Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm and all day on Saturdays. Please let me know what identification I should bring to the volunteer induction.

M4b Customer Review: FreshSpin Launderette & Dry Cleaners, Station Road

Reviewed by Robin Clarke • Rating: 4 / 5 Stars

When my home washing machine broke down last week, I visited FreshSpin Launderette on Station Road with two heavy bags of family laundry and a king-size winter duvet.

What Went Well

I was really impressed by how bright, warm, and spotless the shop was. The large-capacity drum washers cleaned our duvet in just 35 minutes, and the high-speed dryers left everything warm and folded in half the time I expected. The attendant on duty, Mr Khan, was very friendly and showed me which programme to select.

Room for Improvement

The only downside was that the wall-mounted coin change machine was out of order, and contactless card payment is only available on two of the dryers.

Overall, I give FreshSpin 4 out of 5 stars and highly recommend it for bulky laundry! [15/15]
