Core Level 1 Rule

Cover every single bullet point in the exam question and start a new paragraph (with a clear blank line) for each main point.

Critical Exam Trap

Check that every sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a full stop, question mark, or exclamation mark—41.7% of marks are for SPaG!

STRAT

PRE-WRITING MASTERY • TAP, PARAGRAPHS, LINKING WORDS, REGISTER & CHECKING

Core Writing Strategy & Proofreading

The Four Steps to Level 1 Exam Success

1. Decoding Questions (The TAP Method) & Register

- T (Text Format): Spot the required format features (2 addresses for a formal letter, To/Subject for an email, headline/subheadings for an article or leaflet).
- A (Audience): Manager, landlord, council, or company = Formal (polite, no slang). Friend or relative = Informal (warm, friendly).
- P (Purpose): Inform, Persuade, Advise, Explain, Apply, or Complain.
- Letter Sign-Off Rule: Dear Sir/Madam → Yours faithfully | Dear Mr/Mrs [Surname] → Yours sincerely.

2. The 5-Minute Plan & Paragraph Formula

- 5-Min Plan: Before writing, jot down your format layout, 2–3 ideas for each bullet point, and 5 key words to include.
- When to Start a New Paragraph (TiPToP): Change of Time, Place, Topic (give each exam bullet point its own paragraph!), or Person.
- Paragraph Shape: Start with a clear main sentence, add an example or reason (because...), and explain what should happen.
- Leave a Blank Line: Always leave a clear line space between paragraphs.

3. Making Your Writing Engaging & Persuasive

- Direct Address: Speak directly to the reader using you, your, we, and our community in leaflets, articles, and talks.
- Rhetorical Questions: Ask a question to hook the reader (Have you noticed how busy our park has become?).
- Facts & Examples: Give realistic details (times, prices, dates, and practical examples) to develop each bullet point.
- Rule of Three: Group three adjectives together (cleaner, safer, and more welcoming).

4. The 5-Minute Proofreading Routine

- Check 1 (Capitals & Full Stops): Check every sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a full stop (.) or question mark (?). Check capital I and days/months!
- Check 2 (Tenses & Agreement): Check past/present tense and make sure you wrote we were / they were (never we was / they was).
- Check 3 (Homophones & Spellings): Check their/there/they're, your/you're, to/too/two, and key words (because, necessary, business, accommodation).

FORMAT BLUEPRINT & COMPLETE GUIDE • 21 MARKS • 150 AND 250 WORDS

Format 1: Article (Community, Magazine & Web)

What Is an Article? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

An article is written for a community newsletter, local newspaper, college magazine, or website. Its purpose is to inform, interest, and persuade readers about an everyday topic that matters to them. Unlike a letter or email, an article needs an eye-catching headline, a byline with your name, clear subheadings to break up your points, and an encouraging final sentence.

Target Audience: Local residents, families, and readers of a community newsletter or website.
Required Tone & Register: Semi-formal, lively, friendly, and persuasive (use standard English; avoid slang).
Essential Layout Features: Catchy headline, writer's byline (By [Name]), clear opening paragraph, 2 short subheadings, linking words, positive call to action.

Unit 1: Greener Town Action Article

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Catchy Headline
Write a clear, interesting title at the top of the page (e.g. 'Making Greenwood Park Better for Everyone').

2. Writer's Byline
Put your name directly underneath the headline (e.g. 'By Sam Taylor | Local Resident').

3. Engaging Opening
Introduce the topic clearly and ask a question or state why the issue matters to readers.

4. Clear Subheadings
Use 2 short subheadings (e.g. 'Current Problems' and 'Ideas for Improvement') to organise your paragraphs.

5. Facts, Examples & Reasons
Explain each bullet point using linking words ('Firstly', 'However', 'In addition', 'Because').

6. Positive Call to Action
Finish with an encouraging final message telling readers what should happen next.

Unit 1 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 7):

community | facilities | equipment | litter | recycling | benches | outdoor gym | lighting | footpaths | families | maintenance | welcoming

Tutor Golden Rule

Every Level 1 article must look like a real magazine or website piece: include a headline, a 'By [Name]' line, and at least two subheadings.

Examiner Red Flag

Never start an article with 'Dear Editor' or 'To/From', and never sign off with 'Yours sincerely'—those belong in letters and reports.

Making Greenwood Park Better for Everyone

By Sam Taylor | Local Resident

Greenwood Park is a wonderful green space at the heart of our community. Every week, local families, dog walkers, and children visit the park to exercise and enjoy the fresh air. However, have you noticed how run-down some areas have become recently?

Current Problems in the Park

Firstly, there is far too much litter on the grass because there are not enough rubbish bins near the main gates. Secondly, several wooden benches are broken, and the concrete footpaths are cracked and muddy. In addition, poor evening lighting makes the park feel unsafe during winter afternoons.

Ideas for Improvement

To solve these issues, the council should carry out regular maintenance and install extra recycling bins around the play area. Furthermore, building a free outdoor gym with simple fitness equipment would encourage adults and teenagers to stay active. Organising weekend football games or family picnic days would also bring neighbours together.

In conclusion, Greenwood Park is vital to our town. By upgrading the facilities now, we can make our park cleaner, safer, and more welcoming for everyone!

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

community: All the people living in a particular local area or town.

equipment: The items or apparatus needed for an activity or sport.

recycling: Collecting waste materials like plastic and glass so they can be reused.

outdoor gym: Weatherproof exercise machines installed in a public park.

footpaths: Paved walkways designed for pedestrians and pushchairs.

maintenance: Regular repair and upkeep work to keep a place in good condition.

facilities: Buildings, rooms, or services provided for people to use.

litter: Rubbish such as paper, cans, and wrappers left lying on the ground.

benches: Long outdoor seats for two or more people in a public space.

lighting: Streetlamps and path lights that keep public areas bright and safe.

families: Parents, children, and relatives visiting a place together.

welcoming: Friendly, pleasant, and inviting for visitors.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 4 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (12/12): Clear headline, writer's byline, engaging rhetorical question, two thematic subheadings, and full development of all three bullet points.
- Tone & Register: Lively, positive community tone that speaks directly to local readers.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (9/9): Complete sentences demarcated with capital letters, full stops, and a question mark; effective connectives (However, Firstly, Furthermore); accurate spelling of all 12 specialist terms.

Format 2: Email (Workplace, Formal & Informal)

What Is an Email? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

An email is the quickest way to share information, make requests, or suggest ideas at work, college, or in daily life. In a Pearson Edexcel Level 1 exam, you must include a clear 'To:' line and a specific 'Subject:' line at the top. Match your greeting and sign-off to the reader: use 'Dear [Name]' and 'Kind regards' for a manager or tutor, or 'Hi [Name]' and 'Best wishes' for a close friend.

Target Audience: Your manager or colleague (Workplace/Formal) or a friend/family member (Informal).
Required Tone & Register: Polite, helpful, clear, and professional (or warm and friendly for an email to a friend).
Essential Layout Features: To: and Subject: header lines, polite greeting (Dear [Name],), clear opening sentence, structured paragraphs, polite sign-off (Kind regards,).

Unit 2: Community Library Event Email

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Recipient & Subject Header
Write 'To:' and a clear 'Subject:' line summarising what the email is about.

2. Appropriate Greeting
Use 'Dear Sandra,' or 'Dear Mr Patel,' for work/formal emails, or 'Hi Sam,' for a friend.

3. Purpose Opening Line
State why you are emailing in your very first sentence ('I am writing to share my ideas for...').

4. Middle Detail Paragraphs
Group your points into 2–3 short paragraphs covering every bullet point in the question.

5. Helpful Closing Line
Include a polite closing sentence ('Please let me know what you think of these ideas.').

6. Sign-Off & Full Name
Close with 'Kind regards,' or 'Yours sincerely,' and write your full name and job role.

Unit 2 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 12):

charity | fundraising | donations | refreshments | volunteers | posters | community | saturday | families | customers | raffle | successful

Tutor Golden Rule

Always include a clear Subject: line at the top of your email—examiners check for this format feature immediately.

Examiner Red Flag

Do not write postal addresses at the top of an email, and avoid text-speak ('u', 'asap', 'thx') in workplace emails.

To: sandra.hughes@riversidelibrary.org.uk | Subject: Ideas for Next Month's Charity Book and Cake Sale

Dear Sandra,

I am writing to share my suggestions for our annual charity fundraising event at the library next month.

Firstly, alongside our second-hand book tables, we should run a homemade cake and refreshments stall serving tea, coffee, and biscuits. We could also organise a children's storytelling corner and a £1 prize raffle using kind donations from local shops.

In my opinion, Saturday 14th November from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm would be the best time to hold the sale. Most working parents and families are free on Saturday mornings, so we will attract far more customers than on a weekday.

To promote the event, our volunteers could put up colourful posters in local shop windows and share an invitation on our community social media page.

Please let me know if you would like me to start designing the posters. I am confident it will be a very successful day!

Kind regards,

Alex Reed | Library Assistant

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

charity: An organisation set up to provide help and raise money for those in need.	fundraising: Collecting money for a charity, school, or community cause.
donations: Items or money given freely to help a person or organisation.	refreshments: Light drinks and snacks served at an event or meeting.
volunteers: People who offer their time and help without being paid.	posters: Large printed notices displayed in public places to advertise an event.
community: Residents living in the same town or local neighbourhood.	saturday: The weekend day (always spell with a capital S in your exam!).
families: Parents and children attending an activity together.	customers: Visitors who buy goods or services from a shop or stall.
raffle: A competition in which people buy numbered tickets to win prizes.	successful: Achieving the results or goals that were hoped for.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (9/9): Includes recipient email, clear subject line, appropriate greeting/sign-off, and four focused paragraphs answering every prompt requirement.
- Tone & Register: Polite, helpful, and enthusiastic workplace tone suited to a library manager.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (6/6): Accurate commas in lists, correct capital letters for proper nouns (Saturday, November), and error-free spelling of all 12 target terms.

What Is a Formal & Informal Letter? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

A letter is one of the most frequently tested formats in Pearson Edexcel Level 1 exams. For a formal letter (such as a complaint, job application, or council request), you must put your own address and the date in the top-right corner, and the recipient's name and address on the left side above 'Dear...'. For an informal letter to a friend or relative, include only your own address and date in the top-right corner and close warmly with 'Best wishes,'.

Target Audience: Business Manager, Letting Agent, Council Officer, or Employer (Formal); Friend or Relative (Informal).

Required Tone & Register: Formal Letter: Polite, firm, factual, and serious. Informal Letter: Warm, friendly, and personal.

Essential Layout Features: Sender address & date (top right), recipient name & address (left, formal only), Dear [Name], Re: subject line, clear paragraphs, matching sign-off.

Unit 3: Heating Repair Letter

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Sender Address & Date (Top Right)
Write your street, town, and postcode in the top-right corner, with today's date underneath.

2. Recipient Address (Left Side)
For formal letters, write the person's name, job title, company, and address on the left.

3. Salutation & Sign-Off Rule
'Dear Sir/Madam,' ends with 'Yours faithfully,'. 'Dear Mr Jenkins,' ends with 'Yours sincerely,'.

4. Clear Subject Line (Re: ...)
Write a one-line subject heading below the greeting (e.g. 'Re: Urgent Repairs at Flat 3B').

5. Detailed Body Paragraphs
Explain what happened, give exact examples, and describe how the issue affects you.

6. Clear Action & Deadline
State clearly what you want the reader to do and give a reasonable date for a reply.

Unit 3 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 17):

tenancy | maintenance | property | urgent | repair | security | safety | deadline | complaint | contractor | heating | convenience

Tutor Golden Rule

Flat 3B, Riverside Court, Station Road, Westford, WF1 4AB | 3rd September 2026

Mr Paul Jenkins, Property Manager, Cityline Lettings, 45 High Street, Westford, WF2 8TR

Dear Mr Jenkins,

Re: Formal Complaint – Urgent Maintenance Issues at Flat 3B, Riverside Court

I am writing to make a formal complaint regarding unresolved maintenance problems at my rented property, Flat 3B Riverside Court. I moved into the flat three weeks ago under a twelve-month tenancy agreement.

Firstly, the electric shower heating fails after two minutes and turns freezing cold. This makes getting ready for work very difficult every morning. Secondly, the lock on the back door is loose and jammed. This is an urgent security issue because my family cannot lock the door properly at night, which puts our personal safety at risk.

Although I have telephoned your office twice to report these faults, no contractor has visited our home. Therefore, I request that a qualified engineer visits my flat to complete the necessary repair work before Friday 11th September. Please treat this deadline as a priority.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience to confirm the appointment time.

Yours sincerely,

Jordan Miller

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

tenancy: The legal agreement allowing a person to rent a house or flat.	maintenance: Work carried out to keep a building and its fixtures in working order.
property: A building or flat owned or rented by someone.	urgent: Requiring immediate attention or action.
repair: Fixing something that is broken, damaged, or faulty.	security: Protection of a home and its residents against intruders or danger.
safety: Being protected from harm, injury, or risk.	deadline: The latest date or time by which something must be completed.
complaint: A formal statement expressing dissatisfaction with a service or situation.	contractor: A qualified tradesperson hired to carry out building or repair work.
heating: The equipment and system that provides hot water and warmth in a home.	convenience: A time or arrangement that is suitable and trouble-free.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 4 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (12/12): Full UK formal letter layout (right sender address + date, left recipient address, 'Dear Mr Jenkins' paired with 'Yours sincerely', clear Re: line).
- Tone & Register: Polite, firm, and factual without aggressive or rude language.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (9/9): Complex sentence with 'Although', clear sequencing ('Firstly', 'Secondly', 'Therefore'), and accurate spelling of all 12 property and complaint terms.

Format 4: Report (Workplace, College & Community)

What Is a Report? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

A report gives clear facts about a problem or situation and suggests practical ways to improve it. Unlike a letter or article, a report uses a clean header block at the top ('To:', 'From:', 'Date:', 'Subject:') and divides information under clear subheadings: '1. Purpose', '2. Current Problems / Findings', and '3. Recommendations'.

Target Audience: College Principal, Workplace Manager, or Community Committee.

Required Tone & Register: Formal, factual, clear, and objective (avoid slang or overly emotional language).

Essential Layout Features: Report Title, To/From/Date header block, Purpose subheading, Findings/Problems subheading, bulleted Recommendations.

Unit 4: Student Common Room Report

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Clear Report Title
Write a factual title at the top (e.g. 'Report on Student Morning Travel and Parking Issues').

2. To / From / Date Header
Include a neat block showing To:, From:, and Date: directly beneath the title.

3. Purpose / Introduction
Write 1–2 sentences explaining why the report was written.

4. Current Problems / Findings
Explain the main issues clearly using facts, times, and examples from the prompt.

5. Bulleted Recommendations
Use bullet points starting with action verbs ('Expand...', 'Install...') to suggest solutions.

6. Summary Conclusion
Finish with a short sentence explaining how your recommendations will improve the situation.

Unit 4 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 22):

report | purpose | transport | delayed | car park | security | shelter | cyclists | frequent | timetable | recommendations | improve

Tutor Golden Rule

Use clear subheadings ('Purpose', 'Current Problems', 'Recommendations') and bullet points so a busy manager can scan your report easily.

Examiner Red Flag

Do not start a report with 'Dear Manager' or end with 'Yours sincerely'—use a To/From/Date header block instead.

TASK

PEARSON EDEXCEL SCENARIO • 15 MARKS • 140 AND 200 WORDS

Format 4: Report • Guided Exam Task

Official Exam Brief • Format 4

Context & Stimulus Material:
You attend a local adult learning college. The Student Committee has asked you to write a report for the College Principal, Mrs Brenda Clark, about travel and parking problems experienced by students arriving for morning classes.
• The college bicycle shelter is too small and has no security cameras.
• The car park fills up completely by 8:45 am, causing students to arrive late for class.
• The nearest bus stop has no rain shelter and buses are often delayed.

Task Instructions: Write your response for the specified audience. In your writing, you must:

- give your report an appropriate title and include To, From, and Date
- state the purpose of the report
- outline the main transport and parking problems students face
- suggest two practical solutions the college could implement.

Word Count Target: 140 and 200 words Weighting: 15 Marks Key Vocab: report, purpose, transport, delayed, car park, security

5-Minute TAP Planning Framework (Text, Audience, Purpose)

1. Audience & Tone:
Formal, factual, clear, and objective (avoid slang or overly emotional lang

Level 1 Full-Marks Exemplar: Report (Workplace, College & Community)

Report on: Student Morning Travel and Parking Issues

To: Mrs Brenda Clark, College Principal | From: Taylor Evans, Student Committee | Date: 3rd September 2026

1. Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is to explain the morning travel problems experienced by students and suggest practical ways to improve access to the college.

2. Current Travel and Parking Problems

Firstly, the main student car park is completely full by 8:45 am every weekday. Because of this, drivers struggle to find spaces and arrive late for morning lessons. Secondly, public transport is unreliable. The local bus is frequently delayed, and the bus stop outside college has no rain shelter, leaving students wet in bad weather. Finally, many cyclists worry about bike theft because the cycle racks have poor lighting and no CCTV security.

3. Recommendations

To solve these issues, I recommend that the college takes the following actions:

- Expand the covered bicycle area and install a security camera to protect students' bikes.
- Contact the local bus company to request a more frequent morning timetable before 9:00 am.
- Partner with the town council to build a weatherproof shelter at the college bus stop.

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

report: A structured factual document investigating an issue and giving recommendations.	purpose: The reason why a document is written or an action is taken.
transport: Vehicles and services such as buses, trains, and bicycles used for travel.	delayed: Late or running behind the scheduled time.
car park: An area designated for parking motor vehicles.	security: Measures such as locks, lighting, and cameras that prevent crime.
shelter: A covered structure that protects people or bikes from rain and wind.	cyclists: People who travel by riding a bicycle.
frequent: Happening often or at short intervals.	timetable: A schedule showing the times when buses or trains arrive and depart.
recommendations: Practical suggestions about the best action to take.	improve: To make a service, place, or situation better.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (9/9): Authentic report layout with title, To/From/Date metadata bar, numbered subheadings, and action-verb bulleted recommendations.
- Tone & Register: Objective, polite, and factual tone appropriate for a College Principal.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (6/6): Accurate sentence boundaries, possessive apostrophe (students' bikes), and precise spelling of all 12 report terms.

Format 5: Incident & Accident Report

What Is an Incident & Accident Report? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

An incident or accident report is an official workplace safety record completed after an injury, spill, or near-miss. Examiners look for exact details at the top (Date, Time, Exact Location, Person Involved, Reported By), a clear step-by-step account of what happened in time order, what first aid was given, and how to prevent the accident happening again.

Target Audience: Store Manager, Health & Safety Officer, or Shift Supervisor.

Required Tone & Register: Strictly factual, calm, precise, and objective (stick to the facts; do not use emotional language).

Essential Layout Features: Incident Header (Date/Time, Location, Person Involved, Reported By), What Happened (chronological), Action & First Aid, Preventative Recommendations.

Unit 5: Stockroom Accident Report

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Incident Details Header
List the Date & Time, Exact Location, Person Involved, and Reported By at the top.

2. Step-by-Step Account
Describe what happened in exact time order ('At 10:30 am, Tom Harris was unloading...').

3. Injury & Damage Details
State clearly what injury occurred (e.g. lower back pain) or what items were damaged.

4. Immediate Action & First Aid
Record who gave first aid, what treatment was provided, and whether a doctor was advised.

5. Safety Cause / Hazard
Identify why the accident happened (e.g. unlabelled heavy box, no lifting training).

6. Future Prevention Steps
Recommend clear safety rules so the accident does not happen again.

Unit 5 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 27):

incident | injury | stockroom | pallet | overfilled | first aid | accident book | hazard | manual handling | training | supervisor | prevent

Tutor Golden Rule

Include exact times, names, and locations in your top header block, and write events in the exact order they happened.

Examiner Red Flag

Never make up dramatic details that contradict the question, and never use chatty slang in a workplace safety report.

TASK

PEARSON EDEXCEL SCENARIO • 15 MARKS • 120 AND 180 WORDS

Format 5: Incident & Accident Report • Guided Exam Task

Official Exam Brief • Format 5

Context & Stimulus Material:
You work in the stockroom of a retail shop called Trend Fashion. Yesterday morning at 10:30 am, an incident occurred while unloading delivery boxes.
• Date & Time: Yesterday at 10:30 am in the stockroom loading bay.
• Person involved: Tom Harris (Sales Assistant).
• What happened: Tom lifted a heavy box of winter coats from a pallet. The box was overfilled. Tom felt sharp lower back pain and dropped the box.
• Action taken: First aid was given by Rita Gomez (ice pack); Tom was advised to visit his GP.
• Safety issue: No heavy-weight stickers were on the box, and Tom had not done manual handling training.

Task Instructions: Write your response for the specified audience. In your writing, you must:

- state the date, time, location, and person involved
- explain clearly what happened in the order it occurred
- describe the first aid given and action taken immediately after
- recommend what should be done to stop this type of injury happening again.

Workplace Incident & Safety Report

Date & Time: Wednesday 2nd September 2026 at 10:30 am | Location: Stockroom Loading Bay, Trend Fashion

Person Involved: Tom Harris (Sales Assistant) | Reported By: Chris Kelly (Shift Supervisor)

1. Description of the Incident

At 10:30 am on Wednesday morning, Tom Harris was unloading delivery boxes from a wooden pallet in the rear stockroom. He lifted a large cardboard box containing winter coats. Because the carton was overfilled and extremely heavy, Tom felt a sudden sharp pain in his lower back and dropped the box onto the floor.

2. Immediate Action Taken & First Aid

I immediately helped Tom sit down on a chair and called Rita Gomez, our qualified first aid officer. Rita placed an ice pack on Tom's lower back and recorded the incident in the workplace accident book. Tom was sent home to rest and advised to visit his GP for a check-up.

3. Safety Cause & Recommendations

The delivery box had no heavy-weight warning sticker, creating a serious lifting hazard. In addition, Tom had not yet completed his manual handling course. To prevent another injury, all staff must complete lifting training before working in the stockroom, and two people must lift heavy boxes together.

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

incident: An unplanned workplace event, accident, or near-miss.	injury: Physical harm or damage done to a person's body.
stockroom: A storage room behind a shop where goods and deliveries are kept.	pallet: A flat wooden platform used for moving and stacking heavy boxes.
overfilled: Packed with too many items, making a container too heavy or full.	first aid: Immediate medical help given to an injured person before a doctor arrives.
accident book: The official workplace log where all injuries must be recorded.	hazard: Something dangerous that could cause an accident or harm.
manual handling: Lifting, carrying, pushing, or moving loads by hand or bodily force.	training: Instruction given to staff so they can do their job safely and well.
supervisor: A team leader or manager who oversees staff on a shift.	prevent: To stop something dangerous or unwanted from happening.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (9/9): Complete safety log metadata header, clear chronological narrative, first aid record, and actionable preventative steps.
- Tone & Register: Calm, factual, and professional safety tone throughout.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (6/6): Consistent past tense for the event, present modal verbs (must) for recommendations, and accurate spelling of all 12 safety terms.

What Is an Advice & Information Leaflet? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

An advice or information leaflet is a single sheet or folded guide designed to give readers clear, easy-to-follow tips on health, safety, study, or community services. A great Level 1 leaflet must never look like one solid block of text: use a bold main heading, clear subheadings, bullet points starting with bossy action verbs ('Plan...', 'Take...', 'Switch off...'), and a final 'Where to Get Help' box.

Target Audience: Students, local residents, patients, or new employees seeking practical guidance.
Required Tone & Register: Supportive, encouraging, clear, and direct (use 'you' and helpful command verbs).
Essential Layout Features: Bold main title, supportive strapline, short introduction, clear section subheadings, bullet points starting with imperative verbs, contact/help box.

Unit 6: Exam Stress Advice Leaflet

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Bold Leaflet Title
Write an encouraging main heading at the top (e.g. 'Beat Exam Stress: Top Tips for Smarter Revision!').

2. Supportive Introduction
Speak directly to the reader ('you') in 2–3 sentences explaining how the leaflet will help.

3. Section Subheadings
Break the leaflet into clear sections using subheadings (e.g. 'How to Plan Your Study Time').

4. Action-Verb Bullet Points
Give practical tips in bullet points starting with imperative verbs ('Create...', 'Take...', 'Drink...').

5. Healthy Habits & Reasons
Explain why each tip works (e.g. 'because regular breaks keep your mind fresh').

6. Support & Contact Box
Finish with a clear section telling readers who to talk to or where to go for extra help.

Unit 6 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 32):

revision | stress | schedule | distractions | overwhelmed | wellbeing | support | confident | regular | notifications | library | organized

Tutor Golden Rule

Break your leaflet up with clear subheadings and bullet points—readers must be able to find key advice at a glance.

Examiner Red Flag

Do not write a leaflet like a letter ('Dear Student' / 'Yours sincerely')—use a bold title, subheadings, and a contact box.

Beat Exam Stress: Top Tips for Smarter Revision!

A Practical Guide for All College Students Preparing for Upcoming Exams

Are you feeling worried about your upcoming assessments? Exams can feel scary, but starting your revision early is the best way to reduce stress. When you get organized a few weeks in advance, you avoid last-minute panic and walk into the exam room feeling calm and confident.

Top Tips for Effective Studying

- Create a weekly study schedule: Plan 30 to 45 minutes of revision each day rather than cramming everything into the night before your test.
- Take regular short breaks: Stand up, stretch, and drink a glass of water every half hour. Resting your eyes prevents headaches and protects your mental wellbeing.
- Remove digital distractions: Put your mobile phone in another room or switch off social media notifications while you are working.
- Practise past questions: Test yourself using flashcards or past papers to check what you have learned.

Need Extra Support? We Are Here to Help!

If you ever feel overwhelmed or stuck on a difficult topic, please do not struggle alone. Speak to your course tutor, join the free daily study club in the college library, or drop into the Student Support Office in Room 104 between 9:00 am and 4:00 pm.

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

revision: Studying work again in order to prepare for an examination.	stress: A feeling of mental or emotional strain, worry, or pressure.
schedule: A timetable or plan showing when tasks will be done.	distractions: Things that take your attention away from what you should be doing.
overwhelmed: Feeling that a situation or workload is too much to cope with.	wellbeing: The state of feeling healthy, safe, comfortable, and happy.
support: Help, guidance, and encouragement given to someone.	confident: Feeling sure of your own ability to succeed.
regular: Happening at steady, planned intervals.	notifications: Alerts or messages sent to a phone or computer by apps.
library: A quiet room or building containing books and study spaces.	organized: Planned and arranged neatly and efficiently.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 4 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):
• Composition & Format (12/12): Eye-catching title, supportive strapline, rhetorical question opener, parallel imperative bullets, and a specific helpdesk contact section.
• Tone & Register: Warm, encouraging, and practical tone using direct address ('you').
• SPaG & Vocabulary (9/9): Accurate colons inside bullet points, complex sentences with 'When' and 'If', and correct spelling of all 12 study terms.

What Is a Review? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

A review shares your honest opinion of a café, restaurant, bus service, product, or local event to help other people decide whether it is worth their money. A full-marks Level 1 review includes a catchy title, a star rating out of 5, a description of the good points, a fair explanation of any downsides, and a clear final recommendation.

Target Audience: Local residents, shoppers, or website readers deciding whether to visit a place or buy a product.

Required Tone & Register: Honest, fair, descriptive, and balanced (praise the good points and politely mention any negatives).

Essential Layout Features: Engaging review title, Star Rating (e.g. 4/5 Stars) & reviewer byline, what was tested/visited, positives, negatives, final recommendation.

Unit 7: Corner Bakery Café Review

3. When & Why You Visited
Introduce what you bought or where you went in your opening paragraph.

4. What Went Well (Positives)
Describe the best features using descriptive adjectives ('freshly baked', 'polite', 'spotless').

5. What Could Improve (Negatives)
Use 'However,' or 'On the downside,' to mention any problems fairly.

6. Final Recommendation
End by stating clearly who you would recommend the place or product to.

The Corner Bakery: Delicious Lunch at Affordable Prices!

Overall Rating: 4 out of 5 Stars | Review by Liam Cooper

Last Saturday, I visited The Corner Bakery on Church Street for lunch with a friend. Overall, we had a very enjoyable meal at this new local café.

The quality of the food was fantastic. I ordered a warm chicken roll with homemade vegetable soup, followed by a golden oat flapjack. Everything was freshly baked and full of flavour. In addition, the café offers brilliant background:#fef3c7;border-bottom:1.5px solid #d97706;padding:0 0.25mm;border-radius:2px;font-weight:700;color:#0f172a;'>value for money because their £5 lunchtime meal deal includes a sandwich, a hot or cold drink, and a sweet snack.

The counter staff provided quick, friendly background:#fef3c7;border-bottom:1.5px solid #d97706;padding:0 0.25mm;border-radius:2px;font-weight:700;color:#0f172a;'>customer service, and the tables and floor showed a high standard of cleanliness. However, the background music was playing far too loudly, which made it difficult for us to chat comfortably. Turning the volume down slightly would create a much more relaxing atmosphere.

Despite the noisy music, The Corner Bakery is definitely background:#fef3c7;border-bottom:1.5px solid #d97706;padding:0 0.25mm;border-radius:2px;font-weight:700;color:#0f172a;'>recommended for anyone looking for a tasty, affordable lunch in town!

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

review: A written evaluation of a place, product, or service for other readers.	atmosphere: The mood or feeling of a place (e.g. cosy, noisy, relaxing).
customer service: How helpful, polite, and quick staff are when serving customers.	quality: How good or well-made something is.
value for money: Worth the price paid; offering good quality at a fair cost.	recommended: Suggested as being good, worthwhile, and suitable for others.
meal deal: A set combination of food and drink sold together at a lower price.	freshly: Recently made, cooked, or prepared.
cleanliness: The state of being kept clean, tidy, and hygienic.	affordable: Reasonably priced so that most people can pay for it.
background: Music or sounds playing quietly behind the main activity.	overall: Taking everything into account; on the whole.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):
- Composition & Format (9/9): Clear title, 4/5 star rating, balanced appraisal of food, price, staff, cleanliness, and noise level, plus a clear closing recommendation.

What Is an Online Feedback Form? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

Companies use online feedback forms on their websites so customers can report delivery problems, faulty goods, or service experiences. When completing a feedback form in your Level 1 exam, fill in the top reference fields clearly (Customer Name, Order Reference, Date, Rating), explain the facts in order, and state clearly whether you want a replacement, a refund, or an apology.

Target Audience: Customer Service Team or Online Retailer Manager.

Required Tone & Register: Polite, factual, direct, and firm.

Essential Layout Features: Customer Name, Order/Booking Reference, Date, Service Rating, structured feedback paragraphs, clear resolution request (refund/replacement).

Unit 8: Online Delivery Feedback Form

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Form Header Fields
Include Customer Name, Order Reference Number, Date of Order, and Overall Rating (e.g. 1/5).

2. Summary of Purchase
State clearly what item you ordered, when you ordered it, and what delivery you paid for.

3. Delivery & Packaging Faults
Explain what went wrong with the delivery time and the condition of the parcel.

4. Product Discrepancy
Describe specifically what was wrong with the item inside (e.g. wrong size and colour).

5. Impact on You
Explain how this mistake inconvenienced you (e.g. needed the boots for a weekend walk).

6. Requested Resolution
State clearly whether you want a free replacement or a full refund of your delivery fee.

Unit 8 Specialist Vocabulary Bank (12 Essential Level 1 Terms — Full Definitions on Page 42):

order reference | delivery | dispatched | damaged | packaging | incorrect | replacement | refund | postage | inconvenience | customer service | promptly

Tutor Golden Rule

Include the exact Order Reference Number and purchase details from the prompt so customer services can trace your order.

Examiner Red Flag

Do not write postal addresses at the top of an online feedback form—use the form fields (Customer Name, Order Ref, Rating) instead.

You recently ordered a pair of waterproof walking boots from an online store called OutdoorGear Express (Order Reference: OG-7742). You are unhappy with the service:
• You paid £5.99 for next-day delivery, but the parcel arrived four days late.
• The cardboard box was ripped and wet.
• Inside, the boots were Size 7 in black, instead of the Size 9 brown boots you ordered.
Complete the Online Customer Feedback Form on the company's website.

Task Instructions: Write your response for the specified audience. In your writing, you must:

- give your order reference number and state what you ordered
- explain the problems with the delivery time and packaging
- describe the mistake with the boots inside the parcel
- state clearly what you want the company to do to put things right.

Customer Name: Jamie Patel | Order Reference: OG-7742 | Service Rating: 1 out of 5

Details of Order and Delivery Issues

On Monday 1st September, I ordered a pair of Men's Size 9 brown waterproof walking boots from your website (Order Reference: OG-7742). I paid £5.99 for guaranteed next-day delivery because I needed the boots for a walking trip. However, the parcel was dispatched late and arrived four days behind schedule. Furthermore, the cardboard packaging was badly torn and soaked through.

Incorrect Item Received

When I opened the damaged box, I discovered that your warehouse had sent the wrong item. Instead of Size 9 brown boots, the box contained Size 7 black boots, which I cannot wear.

Action Required from Customer Service

To resolve this inconvenience promptly, please send me a free prepaid returns label and dispatch the correct Size 9 brown boots immediately. In addition, I request a full refund of my £5.99 express postage fee.

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

order reference: The unique code given to a customer purchase so the shop can track it.	delivery: The transport and handing over of goods to a customer's address.
dispatched: Sent off from a warehouse or post office to a destination.	damaged: Harmed, torn, or broken so that it is no longer in good condition.
packaging: The box, wrapping, or container used to protect goods in transit.	incorrect: Not right; wrong or inaccurate.
replacement: A new, correct item sent in place of a faulty or wrong one.	refund: Money paid back to a customer when they are unhappy with a product or service.
postage: The charge paid for having a parcel sent by mail or courier.	inconvenience: Trouble, difficulty, or wasted time caused by a problem.
customer service: The department that handles customer questions and complaints.	promptly: Quickly and without any delay.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (9/9): Authentic web form header (Customer Name, Order Ref OG-7742, 1/5 Rating), clear subheadings, and specific resolution requests.
- Tone & Register: Polite, factual, and assertive without being rude.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (6/6): Accurate punctuation withfronted clauses (On Monday..., When I opened..., To resolve...) and correct spelling of all 12 retail terms.

PetCare Community Forum > First-Time Owners > Thread #402

Posted by: AnimalFriend22 | Date: 3rd September 2026

Hi DogLover99,

That is a great question for your family! Having owned dogs for ten years, I strongly believe it is much better to adopt a rescue dog from a local animal shelter.

Firstly, thousands of gentle dogs in shelters are waiting for a loving home. When you visit a reputable rescue centre, the staff assess each dog's personality carefully and match you with a calm pet that suits your family. Secondly, most older rescue dogs are already house-trained, whereas a young puppy requires months of exhausting toilet training and chewed furniture!

However, whichever option you choose, owning a dog is a huge long-term commitment. You must be ready for the daily responsibility of morning and evening walks so your dog gets enough exercise. You also need to budget for food, monthly pet insurance, and unexpected veterinary bills.

Owning a dog is so rewarding—good luck, and let us know what your family decides!

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

adopt: To take an animal from a rescue centre and give it a permanent home.	rescue dog: A dog that has been saved from neglect or abandonment and placed in a shelter.
shelter: A safe place that cares for stray or unwanted animals until they are rehomed.	responsibility: A duty to take care of someone or something reliably.
veterinary: Relating to the medical care and treatment of animals by a vet.	training: Teaching an animal or person how to behave or perform skills.
commitment: A promise to dedicate time, money, and care over many years.	insurance: A monthly policy that helps pay for unexpected medical or vet bills.
personality: The character, nature, and behaviour of a person or animal.	exercise: Physical activity such as walking and running to stay healthy.
reputable: Trusted, honest, and known for having high standards.	rewarding: Giving a strong feeling of happiness and satisfaction.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (9/9): Authentic forum thread path, username/date metadata, direct reply to DogLover99, and full coverage of all three bullets.
- Tone & Register: Warm, supportive, and knowledgeable community tone.
- SPaG & Vocabulary (6/6): Complex sentences with 'When', 'whereas', and 'whichever', correct apostrophe in dog's personality, and accurate spelling of all 12 terms.

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

practical: Involving real hands-on work and doing rather than just reading.	workshop: A room equipped with tools and machines for making or repairing things.
nervous: Feeling slightly worried, anxious, or unsure before doing something new.	equipment: The tools, machines, and safety gear needed for a task.
demonstrated: Showed clearly how to do something in front of learners.	goggles: Protective glasses that fit closely around the eyes to stop dust or sparks.
safety: Following rules to protect yourself and others from injury.	partner: A classmate or colleague you work with as a pair.
instructions: Step-by-step directions explaining how to complete a task.	confidence: Belief and trust in your own skills and abilities.
progress: Forward movement and improvement towards a goal.	target: A specific goal you aim to achieve next.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 3 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

What Is a Speech / Presentation Talk? Purpose, Audience & Layout Rules

A speech or presentation talk is written to be spoken aloud to a live audience—such as welcoming new learners at college, speaking at a neighbourhood meeting, or briefing colleagues at work. To gain full marks at Level 1, you must greet your listeners at the very start ('Good morning everyone, and welcome to...'), introduce yourself, use direct address ('you', 'we', 'our'), ask a rhetorical question, and thank the audience for listening at the end.

Target Audience: Live audience of new students, workplace colleagues, or local residents.

Required Tone & Register: Welcoming, encouraging, clear, and spoken directly to the room.

Essential Layout Features: Direct opening greeting ('Good morning everyone,'), speaker self-introduction, inclusive language ('we', 'you'), rhetorical question, clear signposting, thank-you close.

Unit 12: College Induction Welcome Talk

Step-by-Step Structural Anatomy (Top to Bottom) & Specialist Vocabulary

1. Audience Greeting & Name
Greet the room directly and introduce yourself ('Good morning everyone! My name is...').

2. Reassuring Opening Hook
Welcome the listeners and ask an engaging question ('How many of you felt nervous walking in today?').

3. Signposted Main Points
Guide listeners through your talk using clear starters ('First of all,', 'Secondly,', 'Finally,').

4. Practical Examples & Advice
Cover every bullet point with friendly, helpful details that the audience can remember.

5. Direct Address ('You' & 'We')
Speak directly to the people in front of you using 'you', 'we', and 'our college'.

6. Warm Closing & Thank-You
Finish with an encouraging final message and 'Thank you all for listening!'

Tutor Golden Rule

A speech is spoken aloud to people in a room! Always start by greeting your audience and finish by thanking them for listening.

Examiner Red Flag

Never format a speech like a letter ('Dear Students' / 'Yours sincerely')—without a spoken greeting and thank-you, it reads like an essay.

TASK

PEARSON EDEXCEL SCENARIO • 21 MARKS • 150 AND 250 WORDS

Format 12: Speech / Presentation Talk • Guided Exam Task

Official Exam Brief • Format 12

Context & Stimulus Material:
You are a second-year student helper at Oakfield College. The Student Services team has asked you to give a short welcome talk to new first-year students on their Induction Day.
• Welcome the new students and reassure them that feeling nervous on day one is completely normal.
• Share two practical tips for their first week (e.g. checking room numbers on their timetable, using the student canteen, or getting their ID lanyard).
• Encourage them to join student clubs or societies and explain where to ask for help if they get lost.

Task Instructions: Write your response for the specified audience. In your writing, you must:

- welcome the new students and introduce yourself
- give at least two practical tips to help them settle in during their first week
- encourage them to join student clubs and explain where they can go for help.

Word Count Target: 150 and 250 words Weighting: 21 Marks Key Vocab: welcome, induction, campus, canteen, timetable, societies

5-Minute TAP Planning Framework (Text, Audience, Purpose)

1. Audience & Tone:
Welcoming, encouraging, clear, and spoken directly to the room.

2. Joining Words to Use:

Welcome Talk: Settling In at Oakfield College

Speaker: Jordan Blake (Second-Year Student Representative) | Event: New Student Induction Day

Good morning everyone, and a huge welcome to Oakfield College!

My name is Jordan, and I am a second-year student here. How many of you felt a little bit nervous walking onto the campus this morning? Please do not worry—I felt the exact same way on my induction day last year, and within a week you will feel right at home.

First of all, here are two simple tips to make your first week much easier. Always check the room numbers on your printed timetable ten minutes before class starts, as the building has three floors. Also, remember to wear your student ID lanyard at all times so you can borrow books and use the discount meal counter in the main canteen.

Secondly, I really encourage you to visit the Freshers' Fair on Thursday afternoon. Joining sports teams or student societies is the best way to make new friends and build your confidence.

Finally, if you ever get lost or need advice, our friendly staff at the main reception desk and your personal tutor are always happy to provide support. We are proud to be a welcoming community!

Thank you all for listening, enjoy your first week, and I am happy to answer any questions!

Specialist Vocabulary & Definitions in This Unit (12 High-Yield Level 1 Terms):

welcome: A friendly greeting given to someone arriving at a new place.	induction: An introductory day or course that helps new students or staff settle in.
campus: The buildings and grounds of a college or university.	canteen: A dining hall in a college or workplace where meals and snacks are sold.
timetable: A chart showing the times and rooms for lessons during the week.	societies: Student clubs organised around shared hobbies, sports, or interests.
confidence: Feeling self-assured and comfortable in a new situation.	support: Practical help and guidance offered to learners.
reception: The main front desk where visitors and students can ask for directions.	tutor: A teacher who guides and looks after a group of students.
community: A friendly group of people learning or working together.	questions: Things asked by audience members to get more information.

Why This Achieves Full Marks (Band 4 Composition & Band 3 SPaG):

- Composition & Format (12/12): Authentic spoken greeting, speaker self-introduction, rhetorical question to engage the room, clear signposting (First of all, Secondly, Finally), and a warm thank-you close.
- Tone & Register: Reassuring, upbeat, and inclusive ('you', 'we', 'our').
- SPaG & Vocabulary (9/9): Accurate question mark, dash, and apostrophe (Freshers' Fair), plus error-free spelling of all 12 college induction terms.

TASK

UNSEEN EXAMINATION TASK • 21 MARKS • 150 AND 250 WORDS

Format 12: Speech / Presentation Talk • Practice Task Brief

Unseen Examination Brief • 21 Marks

Scenario & Context: Neighbourhood Talk: Launching a Community 'Clean Up Our Street' & Recycling Day

Target Audience: Neighbours and local residents at a community centre meeting

Context & Stimulus:
You are a member of the Elm Street Residents' Group. You are giving a short talk at a neighbourhood meeting to invite residents to a 'Clean Up Our Street' day next Saturday.
• Why it is needed: Litter in the alleyways, overgrown grass verges, and dumped cardboard boxes.
• Event details: Saturday 17th October from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm, meeting outside the Community Hall (free litter-pickers, gloves, and bin bags provided).
• Social reward: Free hot drinks and sandwiches in the hall at 1:00 pm for everyone who helps.

Exam Scenario: Clean Up Our Street Talk

Task Instructions: In your writing, you must:

- greet your neighbours and explain why the street clean-up day is needed
- give the date, meeting time, and explain what safety equipment will be provided
- encourage residents of all ages to join in and mention the free lunch afterwards.

Strategy: Start with 'Good evening everyone,' and introduce yourself. Use inclusive pronouns ('we', 'our street'), signpost your points clearly, and end with 'Thank you for listening!'

Target: 150 and 250 words • Key Words: welcome, community, litter, recycling, volunteers

SPaG Masterclass 1: Sentence Demarcation & Capital Letters

★ Core Level 1 Rule & Exam Benchmark

Start every sentence with a capital letter, capitalise proper nouns (names, days, months, places) and "I", and end with a full stop (.), question mark (?), or exclamation mark (!).

× Common Exam Mistakes (Loses Marks)

1. Missing Capitals & Full Stop: the new warehouse opens on monday all staff must wear boots
2. Lowercase 'i' & Place Name: i live in westford and i work at the local library.
3. Missing Question Mark: Could you please confirm when the engineer will arrive.

✓ Full-Marks Level 1 Solutions

1. Two Clear Sentences: The new warehouse opens on Monday. All staff must wear boots.
2. Capital 'I' & Proper Noun: I live in Westford and I work at the local library.
3. Accurate Question Mark: Could you please confirm when the engineer will arrive?

▶ Unit 1 Quick-Reference Rules & Examples

Punctuation / Capital Rule	When to Use It at Level 1	Model Exam Example
Full Stop (.)	Marks the end of every complete statement sentence	The community centre opens at 9:00 am.
Question Mark (?)	Marks the end of any direct or rhetorical question	How can we make our local park safer?
Exclamation Mark (!)	Shows strong welcome, encouragement, or an urgent warning	Come along and join the fun this Saturday!
Capital Letters (A–Z)	First word of a sentence, pronoun I, names, places, days, months	On Friday, Mr Patel visited Oakfield College.

✓ Top Level 1 Tip

Start every sentence with a capital letter and end with a full stop (.), question mark (?), or exclamation mark (!).

! Common Exam Trap

Always capitalise the word 'I', people's names, towns, days of the week (Monday), and months (September).

SPaG Masterclass 2: Commas in Lists & Connecting Clauses

★ Core Level 1 Rule & Exam Benchmark

Use commas to separate three or more items in a list and to mark a clear pause after a starter clause (such as "Because...", "If...", or "When...").

× Common Exam Mistakes (Loses Marks)

1. No Commas in a List: We need clean towels warm blankets and tinned food.
2. Missing Comma After Starter Clause: Because the bus was delayed I arrived ten minutes late.
3. Missing Comma After Linking Starter: However the background music was far too loud.

✓ Full-Marks Level 1 Solutions

1. Commas Separating List Items: We need clean towels, warm blankets, and tinned food.
2. Comma After Starter Clause: Because the bus was delayed, I arrived ten minutes late.
3. Comma After Linking Starter: However, the background music was far too loud.

▶ Unit 2 Quick-Reference Rules & Examples

Comma Rule	How It Works	Correct Level 1 Example
1. Items in a List	Place a comma between items in a list of three or more things	They sell soup, hot rolls, fruit, and flapjacks.
2. After a Starter Clause	Place a comma where the opening Because / When / If / Although part ends	When I opened the box, the boots were the wrong size.
3. After a Sequence Word	Place a comma after Firstly, Secondly, However, In addition, Finally	Firstly, the car park is full by 8:45 am every day.
4. Before 'but' or 'so'	Place a comma before but or so when joining two complete clauses	I called your office twice, but nobody has visited yet.

✓ Top Level 1 Tip

Use commas to separate items in a list and place a comma after a starter clause ('Because the bus was late, ...').

! Common Exam Trap

Never join two complete sentences using only a comma (a comma splice)—use a full stop or a joining word like 'and' or 'but'.

SPaG Masterclass 3: Verb Tenses & Subject-Verb Agreement

★ Core Level 1 Rule & Exam Benchmark

Keep past, present, and future verb tenses consistent throughout your writing, and make sure singular and plural subjects match their verbs ("we were", never "we was").

× Common Exam Mistakes (Loses Marks)

1. Agreement Error ('We was'): Last Saturday, we was very pleased with the service.
2. Tense Mix-Up: Yesterday I work in the stockroom and lift a heavy box.
3. 'Could of / Should of' Error: The council should of repaired the broken benches.

✓ Full-Marks Level 1 Solutions

1. Correct Plural Agreement: Last Saturday, we were very pleased with the service.
2. Consistent Past Tense: Yesterday I worked in the stockroom and lifted a heavy box.
3. Correct Modal ('Should have'): The council should have repaired the broken benches.

▶ Unit 3 Quick-Reference Rules & Examples

Grammar Rule (W20)	Common Exam Mistake (Avoid)	Correct Level 1 Standard (Use)
Was vs Were	We was / They was / You was waiting	We were / They were / You were waiting*
There is vs There are	There is lots of broken benches in the park.	There are several broken benches in the park.*
Consistent Verb Tense	Yesterday I go to the café and order soup.	Yesterday I went to the café and ordered soup.
Articles (a vs an)	a urgent repair / a honest mistake / a hour	an urgent repair / an honest mistake / an hour*

✓ Top Level 1 Tip

Keep your verb tenses consistent (past for events that already happened; present for current facts) and check agreement.

! Common Exam Trap

Never write 'we was', 'they was', or 'you was' in an exam—always write 'we were', 'they were', and 'you were'.

LEVEL 1 PUNCTUATION, GRAMMAR & SPELLING • W19–W21 & W25

SPaG Masterclass 4: Apostrophes for Possession & Omission

★ Core Level 1 Rule & Exam Benchmark

Use an apostrophe to show missing letters in contractions (don't, it's = it is) and to show ownership (the customer's coat for one owner; the boys' tournament for plural owners).

× Common Exam Mistakes (Loses Marks)

1. Missing Possessive Apostrophe: The customers coat was left on the managers chair.
2. Its vs It's Mix-Up: The library updated it's timetable because its very busy.
3. Accidental Plural Apostrophe: We sell hot drink's, cake's, and sandwich's.

✓ Full-Marks Level 1 Solutions

1. Singular Possessive ('s): The customer's coat was left on the manager's chair.
2. Correct Its vs It's: The library updated its timetable because it's (it is) very busy.
3. Ordinary Plurals (No Apostrophe): We sell hot drinks, cakes, and sandwiches.

▶ Unit 4 Quick-Reference Rules & Examples

Apostrophe Type	Simple Rule to Follow	Correct Examples
1. Contraction (Missing Letter)	Shows where letters have been left out (do not → don't)	it's (it is), don't (do not), can't (cannot), I'm (I am)
2. One Owner ('s)	Add 's to a singular noun to show something belongs to one person/thing	the manager's desk, Tom's back, the dog's personality
3. Plural Owners Ending in -s (s')	When a plural noun already ends in -s, put the apostrophe after the s	the students' bikes, the boys' football team, residents' views
4. Irregular Plurals ('s)	If a plural word does not end in -s (children, people, men), add 's	the children's play area, people's safety, women's health

✓ Top Level 1 Tip

Use 's for one owner (the manager's office) and s' for more than one owner (the students' common room).

! Common Exam Trap

Remember: 'it's' with an apostrophe always means 'it is' or 'it has'. Possessive 'its' (its opening hours) has NO apostrophe!

★ Core Level 1 Rule & Exam Benchmark

Link simple sentences into fluent compound and complex sentences using joining words such as because, although, or, however, first, and next.

× Common Exam Mistakes (Loses Marks)

1. Choppy Short Sentences: The car park is small. It fills up early. Students arrive late.
2. Overusing 'And then': I lifted the box and then my back hurt and then I dropped it.
3. Incomplete Fragment: Because the lock on the back door is loose.

✓ Full-Marks Level 1 Solutions

1. Joined Complex Sentence: Because the car park is small, it fills up early and students arrive late.
2. Clear Cause & Result: When I lifted the heavy box, I felt sharp pain in my back so I dropped it.
3. Complete Complex Sentence: We cannot secure the flat at night because the lock on the back door is loose.

▶ Unit 5 Quick-Reference Rules & Examples

Type of Joining Word	Key Words to Use	Model Complex Sentence (W25)
Reason (Why)	because, since, as, so that	I paid £5.99 for express delivery because I needed the boots for Saturday.
Contrast (Opposite)	although, even though, whereas, while	Although I have telephoned your office twice, no engineer has visited.*
Time & Condition	when, while, before, after, if, unless	If you feel overwhelmed by revision, speak to your course tutor.*

✓ Top Level 1 Tip

Use joining words (because, although, however, whereas, when, if) to build longer, higher-scoring complex sentences.

T1 14 Oakwood Close, Greendale, GD2 4PT
15 November 2026

Mr Robert Green, Store Manager
Greendale Garden Centre, High Street, Greendale, GD2 1AB

Dear Mr Green,

Re: Application for Part-Time Weekend Customer & Stock Assistant

I am writing to apply for the position of Part-Time Weekend Customer and Stock Assistant, which I saw advertised on the Greendale Garden Centre noticeboard. I am a keen gardener with a strong knowledge of outdoor plants, composts, and garden tools.

For the past two years, I have worked as a volunteer assistant at a busy charity shop. In this role, I served customers at the till, answered questions politely, and priced new stock in the storage room. I enjoy working as part of a friendly team and am physically fit and happy to lift heavy bags of compost safely.

I am available to work every Saturday and Sunday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, as well as Thursday evenings if required. I can attend an interview on any weekday afternoon.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Alex Smith [21/21]

T2 Why We Should All Love Our Local High Street!
By Alex Smith | Local Resident

Independent shops and family-run cafés are the heart of our town. If we want our high street to stay lively and welcoming, we must support our local businesses before they disappear.

Why Shopping Locally Is Great
Personally, I love visiting our local bakery and greengrocer on Saturday mornings. The fresh bread and local vegetables taste much better than supermarket food, and the shopkeepers always greet customers with a warm smile and helpful advice.

How We Can Help
Firstly, residents can help by buying their weekly fruit, gifts, and coffee from local independent traders. Secondly, the town council should offer one hour of free car parking on Saturdays to attract more shoppers into town. Let's support our local high street together! [15/15]

T1 To: susan.clark@megastore.co.uk
Subject: Proposal for Short Till and Returns Refresher Training

Dear Mrs Clark,

I am writing to suggest a short training refresher session for our new customer service assistants who joined the store this month.

Over the past week, several new colleagues have told me that they find the computer till screen and the customer refund process confusing. Because they have to wait for a supervisor to authorise returns, long queues are building up at the main checkouts during busy lunchtime periods.

Running a practical 30-minute training workshop would boost staff confidence, reduce till mistakes, and help us serve customers much faster. I suggest holding the session on Tuesday morning between 8:30 am and 9:00 am before the store opens, so it does not disrupt trading.

I would be happy to help demonstrate the returns system. Please let me know if you think this is a good idea.

Kind regards,
Sam Taylor (Customer Service Assistant) [21/21]
