Key

Any words in brackets are not essential for the answer, eg, good (news).
A slash indicates an alternative answer, eg, paragraphs / sections.
(Accept similar wording) allows for paraphrasing and alternative wording.

Reading	Maximum marks	Criteria
1 What feature in the development plans will benefit bicycle users? New cycle lanes	1 mark	11
2 How will the council turn Hurstbourne Castle into a world-class destination? Give two answers. Making it capable of hosting 400,000 visitors annually £5 million investment (1 mark for each correct answer – maximum 2 marks) (accept similar wording)	2 marks	18
3 Which one of the following words best describes the tone of Document 1? d) Formal	1 mark	19
4 Look at the first paragraph. What are two words or phrases the author of Document 1 has used to exaggerate the problems with Hurstbourne city centre? Two from: • In desperate need of modernisation • intimidating • choking (the area) • stifling (the city centre's ability to grow) (1 mark for each correct answer – maximum 2 marks)	2 marks	17

5 Apart from exaggeration, identify two language techniques used in Document 1 to get its message across. For each identified technique, give one example from the text. Two from: • Facts and figures E.g. 250 million • Persuasive language E.g. the castle will finally receive the attention it deserves • Inclusive language E.g. The castle is the pride of our community • Bias E.g. Hurstbourne city centre is in need of investment • Emotive language E.g. in need / stifling • Positive/optimistic language E.g. Transform • Metaphor E.g. choking • Personification E.g. choking • Instructions E.g. see the full plans here / find out more here • Repetition E.g. we will • Listing • E.g. new shops, restaurants, cafés and a cinema complex Accept similar wording. Accept any other justifiable technique and example. 1 mark for each correct identified technique, with or without example (maximum of 2 marks) 1 mark for correct linked example (maximum of 2 marks). An incorrect example invalidates the technique.	4 marks	14

12 Whose comments have a dismissive tone? Give three answers. Gordon Joe5 PB (1 mark for each correct answer – maximum 3 marks)	3 marks	19
13 Reshi says Visitors to the new shopping centre are bound to spill out into the high street too. What does he mean by this? b) Shopping centre customers will also visit high street shops	1 mark	13

14 Compare opinions from Document 1 and Document 2 about the plans for the new library. Opinions from Document 1 • For a new library • It will be high-quality • It will attract families back into the city centre. • This will give locals somewhere to study or relax in comfort. Opinions from Document 2 • Against a new library • Our city centre doesn't need this waste of space. • It's not like anyone goes to a library to relax or have fun. • A play area would be a much better solution (to getting families back into the city centre). • If people want to access children's books, they can just visit a book shop. 3 marks in total: Evidence from 1 document only 1 piece of evidence from each document 1 piece of evidence from each document + 1 explicit comparison 1 piece of evidence from one document and 2 from the other 1 piece of evidence from one document and 2 from the other + 1 explicit comparison 1 piece of evidence from each + 2 explicit comparisons Maximum 3 marks. NB: comparisons must be explicit, not implicit, to be awarded any mark for the comparison element. The example below demonstrates explicit comparison on three separate occasions (underlined). Eg: Document 1 is for building a central library whereas Document 2 is against. Document 1 feels it would attract families back into the city centre. Document 2 agrees it is important to attract families but thinks a play area would be a better way to do that.	3 marks 0 marks 1 mark 2 marks 2 marks 3 marks 3 marks	12

15 Compare how Documents 1 and 2 use language and/ or layout techniques to convey information about the castle. Ways conveyed in Document 1 only • Links • Hyperbole / exaggeration • Bias • Inclusive language • Emotive language • Enthusiastic tone • Proud tone Ways conveyed in Document 2 only • Rhetorical question • Capital letters • Dismissive tone Ways conveyed in both Documents • Bullets points • Statistics / facts • Persuasive language Accept any other justifiable technique. 3 marks in total: Evidence from 1 document only 1 piece of evidence from each document 1 piece of evidence from each document + 1 explicit comparison 1 piece of evidence from one document and 2 from the other 1 piece of evidence from one document and 2 from the other + 1 explicit comparison 1 piece of evidence from each + 2 explicit comparisons Maximum 3 marks. NB: comparisons must be explicit, not implicit, to be awarded any mark for the comparison element. The example below demonstrates explicit comparison on two separat occasions (underlined). Eg: Document 1 uses an enthusiastic tone when talking about the castl In contrast, Document 2 has a very dismissive tone. They both use persuasive language to convince the reader about their view on the castle.	3 marks 0 marks 1 mark 2 marks 2 marks 3 marks 3 marks	12
