Sample Answers

SCENARIO

You have recently bought a new television but there are several problems with it.

You have decided to write a letter to the company you bought the television from as emails you have sent have bounced back and you can't find a telephone number for them. You need to explain what the problems are, what you have done so far, ask what advice they would give and suggest what you would like them to do about it.

The address you have is Price Electronics, 221 High Street, Nantavon, NT2 2JJ.

Write the letter.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have recently purchased a 52 inch television, with surround sound speakers included, from your company, Price Electronics. Since receiving it, I have noticed several issues with the device, yet I have been unable to contact you on the usual channels of communication, like phone or email.

The problems with the television are as follows: the sound from the speakers is not working, the corner of the screen has pixels missing, the connection to multiple channels is unstable and, every night between 5pm and 7pm, the whole image turns purple!

I have so far attempted to fix the problem by calling and emailing the company and, as I stated above, this was unsuccessful. I have also tried searching each issue individually on the internet to try and solve the problems myself, but to no avail.

I am writing to request advice on how to fix the purple image and screen issues, and to request an engineer be sent to look at the satellite dish connection to avoid further issues with channel connection. If an engineer cannot be sent to fix the television, I would like to request a full refund to be issued as soon as possible.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Yours faithfully
John Smithy

Help clean our seas! Charity fundraiser to fund plastic removal on our beaches

Thousands of tonnes of plastic are dumped in our oceans and waterways every year and the problem only seems to be getting worse. The pandemic has resulted in a massive amount of single-use plastic waste being discarded, much of which has ended up in our oceans. This has a drastic effect, not only on wildlife but on humans too; beaches are becoming unsafe to access because of the high levels of pollution, meaning that your kids could be taking home plastic waste instead of happy memories. Furthermore, beloved pets can swallow tiny microplastics that have a devastating effect.

Details:

- Date: 28/05/22- Saturday
- Location: Exmouth Beach
- Time: 10am

We will be completing a litter-pick in this area of outstanding natural beauty, as well as a raffle at the end; prizes include family tickets to a wildlife sanctuary, so you can meet the adorable animals you are protecting! The cost of a raffle ticket is only £3, and there is a minibus, leaving from bus stop 4 in the centre of town, which will take us to the beach for free. You can take part in either the raffle or the litter pick, but it would be lovely to see people at both, so that we can raise as much money as possible! Not only will this activity help the oceans and beaches, the weather should be good, so it'll be a fun day out for the whole family! Pets are very welcome (as long as they are kept on a lead)- the more the merrier!
