Task 2

Information

You read the following in your school/college/workplace newsletter.

Have we run out of charity?

Some people believe that, in recent years, charities have become too demanding. They say that charities should not be allowed to use email or social media to 'harass' people for money. Some want stricter rules on 'intrusive' telephone calls, junk mail and street campaigns, particularly when dealing with elderly or vulnerable people. Others argue that charities should be free to raise money in any suitable way.

We are looking for lively articles on this topic. Remember, the UK is one of the most charitable places in the world!

Writing Task

Write an article for your school/college/workplace newsletter, giving your own detailed views on charity in the UK.

In your article, you should:

- give your own views on the issues and explain your reasons
- state whether you agree or disagree that 'charities have become too demanding'.

Use sentences and write in Standard English.
