A TASTE NEVER FORGOTTEN

Here at the Royal Crown Inn, we're devoted to producing delicious country fare as well as supporting local farms that provide our produce.

Fresh fish is a specialty. Our trout and salmon come from local rivers and we buy our seafood from two local ports. Not a fish fan? Don't worry. We also have classic British favourites, like 'pie of the day' served with mash and fresh veg. Or you can try our mega pizza menu – great for kids.

Please note that our menus change according to what fresh foods are available.

FAMILY DINING AT THE RCI

Food tastes even better when enjoyed together with the whole family. We can easily handle a party of up to 10 people in the restaurant, of all ages – any bigger and we suggest you book the barn and feast on a traditional Sunday roast or sample something very special from our many menus. You're spoilt for choice at the RCI!

Please book, though; we'd hate for you to be disappointed.

Delicious food and atmosphere

Sarah Winston

We were passing through at about 6pm on a sunny Tuesday evening and decided to stop at the RCI for supper, since it looked so delightful. The car park was already half full. The price of the food was reasonable considering its excellent quality. We both ordered the fish of the day – trout with courgettes – and it was delicious. The staff were very helpful and the wine was superb. I didn't have enough room for pudding, but my husband couldn't resist 'the very tempting lemon tart', despite his expanding waistline! All in all a great evening, especially as he was driving!

Decent service

George Peabody

We booked for 7:30pm, which was just as well because the place was packed when we arrived and there were four of us. The car park was a nightmare. In the end, we parked way down the road, which wasn't ideal. The staff were very polite, however. They saw us to our table and took our order very efficiently, although a high chair for the little one would have been helpful. Perching a 1½ year-old on three cushions isn't ideal, is it. We had steak and chips. My wife's was all right but mine was under-cooked.

Over-crowded and over-priced

Adrian Manders

The car park was set out very badly and was crowded but I guess it was quite late. The restaurant was also far too cramped and we had to wait half an hour for a table, drinking expensive wine at the bar. We did leave a tip because although the meal was expensive, the service was good. Not a place offering value for money, or much of a diverse menu. I am local to the area and this was my first, and last, experience of the Royal Crown Inn.

Good food and service

Zarine Sarhadi

The service was excellent – we arrived late in the evening and didn't think they could find space for our family of six, but they did, showing us to our table immediately. My husband and I had the smoked trout with avocado salad which was very tasty. The lack of a children's menu was disappointing and surprising for a restaurant that claims to be 'family friendly'. However, we just ordered smaller portions for them which worked out fine. The place is clearly popular, as evidenced by the lack of space in the car park, so you might want to think about booking ahead. We would go back for a relaxed Sunday lunch.
