1. Write an email

You are a local resident.

Groups of people in your town feel isolated from the community. They feel that a community centre would help them feel less isolated.

Write an email to the council persuading them to open a community centre in the local area.

The council's email address is: ideas@council.co.gov

Your email could include:

- why the centre would benefit the community
- where the centre should be built and why
- what activities the centre could provide.

Your email should be at least 150 words.

You can use a real or imagined town.
