1. Write an article

You are a local resident.

You recently visited a local area of interest and want to share your experience.

This is an area that is popular with tourists from other areas of the country and from abroad.

Write an article for a local newspaper persuading people to visit the local area of interest.

Your article could include:

- why the area is interesting
- who you visited with and what you did or did not enjoy
- helpful advice for anyone who is considering visiting the same place.

Your article should be at least 150 words.

You can use a real or imagined local area of interest.
