1. Write an email

You are expecting a visit from a friend.

Your friend from Europe is visiting you for a week during the summer. You would like to give your friend a tour of your town during their visit.

Write an email to your friend giving them details of the visit.

The friend's email address is: a.raghvani@email.co.rt

Your email could include:

- a description of your town and details about what there is to see
- places you could visit.
- why the visit would be interesting and fun.

Your email should be at least 150 words.

You can use a real or imagined town.

2. Write a leaflet

You work in a local park.

You are planning a monthly walk in the local park. The walks will last for around 45 minutes, exploring the park's nature and wildlife, including trees, plants and birds.

Write the text for a leaflet persuading people to join the walk. Your leaflet is for families with young children.

Your leaflet could include:

- what children will learn on the walk
- what people might see on the walk
- why the walk will be fun for families.

Your leaflet should be at least 150 words.

You can use a real or imagined park.
