1. Write an email

You have completed a work placement/experience.

The work placement/experience gave you the opportunity to find out more about the industry and to learn some new skills. It also gave you the chance to put your existing skills and knowledge into practice. Your friend has shown an interest in starting a work placement/experience and has asked for your ideas.

Write an email to your friend about your placement/experience. The email should describe your experience and explain what the positives and negatives of the work placement/experience were.

The friend's email address is: gelilat.z@friendlymail.co.biz

Your email should be at least 250 words.

You can use a real or imagined work placement.

[16] Composition
[11] SPaG
