- ✶ suggested improvements.

Lottie Smith

The Canteen Manager.

Canteen Evaluation and Recommendations

[Report Heading]

Report for Lottie Smith | By Jordan Bennett

[Author Byline]

1. The Food

[Section Subheading]

The hot meals served in the canteen, particularly the chicken curry, roast beef, and traditional pies, are tasty and well prepared. However, there is a clear shortage of healthy salad options and vegan dishes. Providing daily vegetarian pasta bowls and freshly blended fruit smoothies would give learners more nutritious choices. In addition, cold pre-packed sandwiches have become far too expensive for students on tight budgets, and the fresh fruit selection is often bruised or unavailable.

[Nutritious Options]

2. Service and Appearance

[Section Subheading]

The serving staff are always polite, cheerful, and patient during busy lunch hours. Unfortunately, the dining environment looks drab and uninviting: the beige walls desperately need repainting, and several wooden chairs are chipped, wobbly, and uncomfortable. The overhead lighting is too dim, and tables can take too long to be cleared and sanitised between sittings. Adding extra recycling bins near the exit would also prevent food trays from piling up.

[Dining Improvements]

3. Suggested Improvements [Recommendations]

To increase customer numbers, the canteen should introduce an affordable soup and roll meal deal for winter. Replacing worn furniture with modern colourful chairs, installing bright lighting, and adding indoor plants would create a much warmer dining atmosphere. Displaying weekly menu boards online would also allow students to plan ahead. Finally, offering a digital loyalty card where customers receive every fifth hot drink free would encourage regular daily visits [Loyalty Card]

My Favourite Performers: Icons of Music and Cinema [Article Headline]

By Jordan Bennett | Student Arts Review [Byline]

We all have talented entertainers whose creative performances bring joy and inspiration to our daily lives. Two extraordinary performers whom I particularly admire are the British singer Adele and the celebrated Hollywood actor Tom Hanks. [Performers Chosen]

Adele is truly special because her powerful, soulful singing voice conveys raw, authentic emotion. She writes heartfelt ballads that connect deeply with millions of listeners worldwide, and her warm, down-to-earth personality during live stadium concerts makes her incredibly relatable. In contrast, Tom Hanks is a master of cinema who possesses exceptional versatility. Whether starring in heartwarming dramas like Forrest Gump, captivating adventures like Cast Away, or voicing Woody in Toy Story, he completely immerses himself in every character with total sincerity.

In addition, they continue to inspire aspiring young artists across the globe with their humility, determination, and exceptional work ethic.
