0 1 You have read the following on the Bramby.com website:

Here at the Bramby Community Forum, we'd love to know what inspired you during lockdown.

Was it that box set that had you gripped? Or that new album that you couldn't stop listening to? Did you get heavily involved in a compelling book?

Did you watch a special film that worked its magic? Was it a sporting event that captured your imagination?

We want others to share your experience and we hope to post an anthology of the best reports so that others can benefit.

Go online to Bramby.com and submit your report.

Task 2 Model Response

MFS Stepped Model Solution Continuation Sheet (Overflow-Safe Layout)

To: Enquiries / Coordinator
Subject: Response Regarding Task 2 Brief

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing in response to the brief (You received the following leaflet through your letterbox: You used Bramby Cosmo Foods for a takeaway but were unhappy with the service.) to set out clear, practical points.

First, addressing plan your answer is essential so participants have accurate information well in advance and can plan without disruption.

Second, regarding use correct spelling, punctuation and grammar, providing clear guidance and accessible support will make a positive difference for everyone involved.

Finally, for write accurately in sentences and paragraphs, I suggest publishing a clear timetable and inviting brief feedback so arrangements can be refined smoothly.

Thank you for considering these points. Please let me know if you would like to discuss anything further.

Yours faithfully,
Sam Patel
