Question 2

You will be assessed on:

- Communicating information, ideas and opinions clearly, coherently and accurately
- Communicating with appropriate detail to suit purpose and audience
- Using appropriate format, structure and language for purpose and audience
- Writing consistently and accurately in complex sentences, using paragraphs where appropriate
- Using correct spelling, punctuation and grammar.

Question 2

You buy a new computer from a shop in town, A-Z Technology Supplies. It stops working soon afterwards. When you contact the shop they are unhelpful, do not offer to repair or exchange it or give a refund.

Your task: write a letter of complaint to the shop manager. In your letter you should explain

- why you are writing
- what is wrong with the computer
- how the shop responded when you contacted them
- what action you would like the shop to take.

The person to write to is Mr Peter Jeffries, Managing Director, A-Z Technology Supplies, London Road, Manchester, M10 7JP.

Include all relevant details in your letter.

REPORT: HOW MODERN TECHNOLOGY BENEFITS SOCIETY

Introduction

Modern technology—including smartphones, high-speed internet, and everyday applications—has transformed how we live and work. Even for people without technical expertise, these tools offer clear, practical advantages.

Technology in Personal Life

At home, video calls and messaging apps allow families to stay connected across long distances instantly. Online banking and supermarket deliveries also save hours every week, particularly for elderly or busy residents.

Technology in Business

In the workplace, digital spreadsheets, cloud storage, and email enable small businesses to serve customers quickly and keep accurate records without mountains of paper.

Technology in the Wider World

Globally, medical scanning equipment, online education, and satellite weather forecasts save lives and expand opportunity in remote communities.

Life Without Modern Technology

Without these innovations, simple tasks such as paying bills, booking GP appointments, or researching information would require slow postal letters and long queues. Overall, modern technology makes everyday life safer, faster, and more connected.

Dear Mr Jeffries,

Re: Faulty Desktop Computer — Request for Refund or Replacement

I am writing to formally complain about a new desktop computer I purchased from your Manchester store on 10 October 2026 for £549.

Just three days after purchase, the computer began shutting down unexpectedly and now refuses to power on at all. When I returned to the shop on 15 October, the staff member on duty was unhelpful and refused to offer a repair, exchange, or refund.

Under the Consumer Rights Act 2015, goods must be of satisfactory quality and fit for purpose. As the fault developed almost immediately, I request that you arrange a
