MYSTERY SHOPPER STORE EVALUATION REPORT

Store Visited: Westfield High Street Branch | Date: Saturday 18 October 2026, 2:15 pm

1. Store Appearance and Tidiness

The shopfront window display was eye-catching and well lit. Inside, however, the menswear knitwear tables were disorganised, and two fitting-room cubicles contained uncollected hangers.

2. Staff Availability and Customer Service

During a busy afternoon, only two floor staff were visible. When I requested assistance finding a medium winter coat, the sales assistant greeted me warmly, checked the stockroom promptly, and offered helpful styling alternatives.

3. Stock Availability

Core denim lines were well stocked across all sizes, though popular autumn knitwear in sizes 10 and 12 was out of stock on the shop floor.

4. Recommendations

Deploy one additional floor assistant on Saturday afternoons to maintain table presentation and speed up fitting-room clearance.

Standing in their way is Director Sterling, the charming yet ruthless curator who will stop at nothing to keep the museum's secrets buried. In a tense final episode set during a winter blackout, Clara outsmarts Sterling's security team, broadcasts the ledger online, and escapes onto the rooftop just as police sirens surround the building—leaving one mysterious key still unexplained for Season 2!
