THE VET WEEKLY GAZETTE

Are cat cafés suitable homes for cats?

By Catherine Smith

Around 3 million cats need re-homing every year. In cat cafés, cats find a permanent home and are able to interact, and show off their personalities.

However, despite their popularity, some animal welfare societies have criticised cat cafés. They say that cat cafés are unsuitable for cats because

- they have to live in confined spaces
- they find being stroked by lots of different people stressful
- they are solitary animals. Living in one room with a group of unrelated cats can lead to aggression and disease.

A number of cat cafés have been forced to close down due to poor hygiene standards or because they ill-treated their animals. [Q9 Closure]

Since cat cafés are so popular, instead of criticising them we should aim to make them better. [Q11 Vocab]

The government should introduce legislation to regulate cat cafés. The government should also encourage all pet owners to neuter their cats to stop unwanted breeding and reduce the number of cats ending up in rescue centres and cat cafés. [Q10 Gov] [Q8 Welfare]

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Heavenly!

We had a really good time at the Fluffy Café. The cats were friendly and fun. The staff were really helpful. The food was tasty and fresh. A lovely place to go and relax and be with t cats!

[Q13 Exclamation]

[Q12 Farhat]

Farhat

Delightful!

Whiskers Café is a must! The cats are cute, the interior is lovely and the staff friendly. The value for money is fantastic, £8 for one hour! I got to stroke and play with the cats. The coffee was delicious and the chocolate cake yummy!

Julian

Over-priced!

The Little Kitty Café is a quirky place with nice staff, but £20 just to walk through the door is ridiculous! The food is awful. The cats aren't even friendly, they're completely wild. One even scratched my little boy.

[Q12 Martin]

Martin

Go elsewhere!

The Mog Café is a waste of time and money! I love cats but I was disappointed, really, r disappointed. The cats were stressed because of undisciplined children chasing and grabbing them with no one stopping them. Staff looked miserable and were really unwelcoming. Food was good but very overpriced. Don't go there!
