MFS Stepped Model Solution Continuation Sheet (Overflow-Safe Layout)

Task Brief:

Your employer has asked you to write a formal report on reducing paper and energy waste in the office. Use Appendix 1 Report format: title, sub-headings, numbered sections/bullets, findings, and recommendations (250-300 words).

Format & Mark Scheme Checklist (SOS20-SOS26):

- Appropriate Report Title & Sub-headings (Appendix 1)
- Numbered sections / bullet points
- Objective formal tone & clear recommendations
- 250-300 words with accurate SPaG

MFS Benchmark Model Response:

FORMAL REPORT: REDUCING OFFICE PAPER AND ENERGY WASTE

This report evaluates current paper and electricity consumption across our three-floor office and outlines practical measures to reduce both environmental impact and annual operating costs.

1. Introduction

2. Key Findings

An internal audit conducted in October 2026 identified three primary sources of avoidable waste:

- Default single-sided printing accounts for approximately 65% of all paper used.
- Desktop monitors and communal printers frequently remain powered on overnight.
- Insufficient recycling bins in meeting rooms lead to recyclable paper entering general waste.

To achieve a measurable reduction within the next quarter, management should implement the following steps:

3. Practical Recommendations

- Configure all network printers to double-sided, black-and-white printing as standard.
- Install automatic timer plugs on communal equipment and remind staff to shut down workstations

- Place clearly labelled paper-recycling stations in every meeting room and kitchen area.

before leaving.

4. Conclusion By adopting these low-cost operational changes, the company can reduce paper expenditure by an estimated 40% while demonstrating a visible commitment to workplace sustainability.

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Urgent Request for Improved Pedestrian Safety on Station Road

I am writing as a concerned local resident to urge the council to install a controlled pedestrian crossing and upgrade street lighting along Station Road, directly outside Brookfield Primary School.

During morning and afternoon school runs, heavy commuter traffic regularly exceeds the 30 mph speed limit, making it extremely hazardous for young families and elderly pedestrians to cross safely. Moreover, two lampposts near the eastern junction have been faulty since September, leaving the pavement poorly lit as winter evenings draw in.

Installing a zebra or pelican crossing, supported by brighter LED street lighting and clear warning signage, would dramatically reduce the risk of a serious collision. I would be grateful if a highways officer could inspect the site during peak hours and confirm what action will be taken.

Yours faithfully,

Hannah Reid
