Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Faulty 55-inch Smart Television (Order Ref: PE-99421)

I am writing to formally report several serious faults with a 55-inch Ultra HD television that I purchased from your store on 5 October 2026. Unfortunately, I have been forced to write by post because every email I have sent to your customer support address has bounced back as undeliverable, and there is no working telephone number listed on your website or receipt.

Within forty-eight hours of installation, the television developed three persistent issues. Firstly, the screen intermittently flickers and loses all picture for several seconds at a time. Secondly, the built-in speakers emit a loud, high-pitched buzzing noise whenever the volume exceeds level fifteen. Finally, the smart interface repeatedly freezes when attempting to open standard streaming applications, requiring the unit to be unplugged at the mains.

So far, I have checked all HDMI cables, tested different power sockets, and performed two full factory resets in accordance with the manufacturer's manual; however, none of these steps has resolved the defects. Could you please advise me whether there is a known firmware update for this model, or whether an engineer inspection is required?

Under the Consumer Rights Act 2015, goods must be of satisfactory quality and fit for purpose. Given how recently the item was purchased, I would like you to arrange a prompt replacement unit or issue a full refund within fourteen days. Please respond in writing to the address above.

Yours faithfully,

Jordan Patel

Event Details & Costs

Registration costs just £12 per person, which covers return coach transport from our office car park (departing promptly at 8:30 am), a bottle of water, and a hot buffet lunch at the Summit Cafe. Friends and family members are warmly welcome to join us at the same £12 rate.

Signing up takes less than two minutes! Simply add your name to the sign-up sheet at main reception or email our social committee before Friday 6 November. Please remember to wear sturdy walking boots and bring a waterproof jacket. If you prefer not to walk the full 10 km, you can volunteer at our checkpoint refreshment stall or join us for the afternoon lunch.

How You Can Take Part

How We Will Raise Money for Charity

Each participant will receive an official sponsorship form and a link to our team fundraising page. We are aiming for every walker to raise at least £30 in sponsorship from friends and relatives. In addition, senior management has generously pledged to match every pound we raise up to £1,500, doubling the impact of our collective effort! There will also be a charity raffle on the coach home.
