UNIT 1 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

1 Sentence Basics — Capital Letters & Full Stops

Abdul

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Shift Handover Log & Daily Operational Notes

★ B Complete Sentence Architecture: Subject + Finite Verb + Complete Thought

A complete grammatical sentence must express a single finished thought and contain two essential pillars:

Capital Letter → [Subject: Who/What] + [Finite Verb: Action/State] + [Complete Sense] → Full Stop (.)

- Sentence Fragment: Missing a finite verb or subject (e.g. "Because the conveyor stopped." — this is an incomplete dependent clause).
- Run-on Sentence: Two independent sentences fused together with no terminal punctuation (e.g. "The conveyor stopped the engineer arrived.").
- Full Stop Rule: Conclude every declarative sentence with a solid full stop (.). The subsequent sentence must open with a crisp capital letter.

× Common Mistake

the morning shift finished at eight all safety gates was locked secure. Because the team followed protocol.

✓ Correct Sentence

The morning shift finished at eight. All safety gates were locked securely because the team followed protocol.

Why: Capitalised the sentence starters ('The', 'All'), split the run-on with a full stop, and joined the dangling fragment into a complete causal sentence.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Which sentence contains both a capital letter and a correct terminal full stop?

- [ ] the warehouse shutter opened at dawn.
- [ ] The warehouse shutter opened at dawn.
- [ ] The warehouse shutter opened at dawn

2 Identify the sentence fragment that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence:

- [ ] Forklift 3 passed its hydraulic inspection.
- [ ] After the technician tested the emergency brake.
- [ ] We ordered replacement filters this morning.

B Rewrite each sentence correctly

3 [Rewrite with capital letter and full stop]: the delivery docket was signed by the depot manager

4 [Split the fused run-on into two sentences]: safety helmets are mandatory visitors must sign in

C Applied Practice: Write two sentences of your own using the rules from Unit 1.

UNIT 2 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

2 Question Marks vs Exclamation Marks in Customer Service

Priya

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Customer Helpdesk & Client Correspondence

★ B Direct Inquiry vs Urgent Exclamation Grammar

Punctuation governs customer tone and transactional clarity:

[Direct Question] → Inversion (Auxiliary + Subject) → Question Mark (?)

[Safety Hazard / Urgent Warning] → High Alarm → Exclamation Mark (!) (Maximum ONE)

- Direct Question: Requires an answer or action from the reader (e.g. "Would you prefer a refund or an exchange?"). Conclude with a question mark.
- Indirect Statement: Do not place a question mark on indirect reported questions (e.g. "The customer asked if the parcel had arrived." — end with a full stop).
- Exclamation Control: Reserved exclusively for urgent hazard warnings (e.g. "Caution! Wet floor."). Never use multiple marks (!! or !?!?) in workplace writing.

× Common Mistake

Could you please confirm your invoice number. Hurry up and reply immediately!!!

✓ Correct Sentence

Could you please confirm your invoice number? Please reply at your earliest convenience.

Why: Replaced the careless full stop with a required question mark and eliminated triple exclamation marks to maintain polite professional composure.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Which sentence requires a question mark at the end?

- [ ] I am writing to ask about your return policy.
- [ ] Could you confirm your tracking reference number
- [ ] We received your replacement order yesterday.

2 Select the sentence with professional, appropriate exclamation mark usage:

- [ ] Warning! Isolate electrical supply before opening panel.
- [ ] Thanks for your email today!!!!!!
- [ ] Please help me right now!!!

B Rewrite each sentence correctly

3 [Add the correct terminal mark (? or .)]: Would you like me to reserve the appointment for Thursday

4 [Remove informal exclamation marks]: Your order has been dispatched today!!! Have a lovely weekend!!

C Applied Practice: Write two sentences of your own using the rules from Unit 2.

3 Capital Letters for Proper Nouns, Acronyms & Titles (MINTS)

Marcus

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Conference Registration & Corporate Identity

★ B The MINTS Framework for Flawless Capitalisation

Remember the five essential categories that demand capital letters:

(M) Months & Days • (I) The Pronoun 'I' • (N) Names & Places • (T) Titles & Headings • (S) Start of Sentences

- Months & Days: Always capitalise Monday, Friday, January, September. Do not capitalise general seasons (spring, autumn) unless part of a proper title.
- Names, Places & Nationalities: Sarah Jenkins, Manchester, British, English, NHS.
- Job Titles & Honorifics: Capitalise specific individual titles (Dr Evans, Prime Minister, General Manager Patel), but use lowercase for general job roles (our manager, the technician).
- Acronyms: Initialisms and acronyms are set in full capitals: UK, Ofqual, PPE, CCTV, HR.

× Common Mistake

on wednesday, i accompanied dr green to manchester general hospital to inspect the new ppe store.

✓ Correct Sentence

On Wednesday, I accompanied Dr Green to Manchester General Hospital to inspect the new PPE store.

C Applied Practice: Write two sentences of your own using the rules from Unit 3.

UNIT 4 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

4 Joining Sentences with Coordinating Conjunctions (And, But, Or, So)

Sarah

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Incident Log & Risk Assessment Updates

★ B The FANBOYS Toolkit: Coordinating Equal Clauses

Coordinating conjunctions connect two independent, grammatically equal clauses:

[Independent Clause 1] + , [and / but / or / so] + [Independent Clause 2]

- AND: Adds similar information (e.g. "The fire alarm sounded, and all staff evacuated immediately.").
- BUT: Signals an unexpected contrast (e.g. "The engineer arrived on time, but the replacement valve was missing.").
- OR: Offers choices or alternatives (e.g. "You can submit the paper timesheet, or you can log your hours online.").
- SO: Shows a direct logical result (e.g. "The access road was flooded, so deliveries were redirected.").

× Common Mistake

The forklift battery died. The operator plugged it in. The backup charger was broken.

✓ Correct Sentence

The forklift battery died, so the operator plugged it in, but the backup charger was broken.

Why: Combined choppy repetitive fragments using 'so' (logical outcome) and 'but' (contrast), improving flow and cohesion.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Choose the best conjunction to show a contrast: 'We ordered fifty safety vests, [_____] only twenty arrived.'

☐ and ☐ but ☐ so

2 Choose the conjunction indicating a result: 'The printer toner was empty, [_____] Marcus replaced the cartridge.'

UNIT 5 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

5 Joining Sentences with Subordinating Conjunctions (Because, Although, When)

Sam

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Staff Performance Appraisal & Action Planning

B Complex Sentence Hierarchy: Main Clause + Subordinate Clause

A complex sentence contains an independent main clause and a dependent subordinate clause:

[Main Clause] + [because / although / when / if] + [Subordinate Clause]

[Subordinating Conjunction] + [Subordinate Clause] + , + [Main Clause]

- BECAUSE (Reason): "Hannah exceeded her sales target because she phoned prospective clients daily."
- ALTHOUGH (Concession): "Although the software crashed twice, James submitted the payroll report on schedule."
- WHEN / IF (Condition/Time): "When the customer arrives, please escort them to Meeting Room 3."
- Comma Rule: When the subordinate clause comes FIRST, place a comma after it. When it comes second, no comma is required.

× Common Mistake

Because Priya completed her training course early. She was promoted to team leader.

✓ Correct Sentence

Because Priya completed her training course early, she was promoted to team leader.

Why: Removed the incorrect full stop that isolated the subordinate clause into a fragment, adding a required comma before the main clause.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Choose the subordinating conjunction showing concession: '[_____] the team was short-staffed, they finished all patient rounds.'

- ☐ Because
- ☐ Although
- ☐ When

2 Which sentence is punctuated correctly with a subordinate clause at the start?

UNIT 6 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

6 Commas in Everyday Lists of Items & Actions

Abdul

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Catering Stock Orders & Kitchen Inventory

★ B Listing Mechanics: Items, Adjectives & Actions

Commas separate three or more items, modifiers, or verb phrases in a series:

[Item 1] , [Item 2] , [Item 3] and [Item 4]

- Serial Commas: Use commas between every item in a list of three or more nouns (e.g. "Please order milk, butter, cheddar cheese and double cream.").
- Actions in Series: Separate consecutive verb phrases (e.g. "The technician checked the fluid level, replaced the gasket, cleaned the housing and tested the pump.").
- Two Items Only: Never insert a comma when joining only two items (e.g. "Order bread and butter." NOT "Order bread, and butter.").
- The 'And' Rule: In standard Level 1 UK writing, do not place a comma immediately before or after 'and' unless required to prevent ambiguity.

× Common Mistake

The pantry order requires flour sugar eggs, baking powder, and, vanilla essence.

✓ Correct Sentence

The pantry order requires flour, sugar, eggs, baking powder and vanilla essence.

Why: Inserted missing commas between the first three items and deleted unnecessary commas around 'and'.

7 Commas after Introductory Phrases & Time Words

Priya

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Fire Evacuation & Security Operating Procedures

When an introductory phrase or time word opens a sentence, set it off with a comma:

[Introductory Time / Transition Word] + , + [Subject] + [Main Action / Instruction]

- Time Words & Sequencing: First, Next, Finally, Yesterday, At 08:30, Last Tuesday (e.g. "Last Monday, the fire marshals conducted an unannounced drill.").

- Transition Linkers: However, Therefore, In addition, For example, Furthermore (e.g. "However, the second stairwell remained blocked.").

× Common Mistake

Yesterday morning our safety representative checked all twenty fire doors.

✓ Correct Sentence

Yesterday morning, our safety representative checked all twenty fire doors.

A Tick the correct sentence

- [ ] In September the new apprentices begin their rotations.
- [ ] In September, the new apprentices begin their rotations.
- [ ] In, September the new apprentices begin their rotations.

UNIT 8 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

8 Apostrophes for Contractions (Don't, Can't, Wouldn't)

Marcus

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Staff Shift Cover & Immediate Operational Messaging

★ B Contraction Mechanics: The Apostrophe Replaces Missing Letters

An apostrophe of contraction marks exactly where letters have been omitted when two words merge:

do not → don't (omits 'o') • cannot → can't (omits 'no') • would not → wouldn't (omits 'o')

- Exact Letter Replacement: The apostrophe sits inside the word precisely where the missing letter used to be (e.g. does not → doesn't; NOT does'nt).
- Top Contractions: isn't, aren't, hasn't, haven't, didn't, won't, it's (= it is).
- Exam Awareness: In formal letters and incident reports, examiners prefer full uncontracted forms (do not, will not), but in informal emails and chat logs, contractions must be formed flawlessly.

× Common Mistake

We could'nt open the safe because the supervisor has'nt arrived and they dont have the key.

✓ Correct Sentence

We couldn't open the safe because the supervisor hasn't arrived and they don't have the key.

Why: Corrected misplaced apostrophes in 'couldn't' and 'hasn't' (between 'n' and 't'), and added the missing apostrophe to 'don't'.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Which contraction is spelled with the apostrophe in the correct position?

☐ did'nt ☐ didn't ☐ didnt

2 Choose the correct contracted form of 'we will':

UNIT 9 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

9 Apostrophes for Singular Possession (The customer's order)

Sarah

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Customer Returns Desk & Lost Property Ledger

★ B Singular Ownership Architecture: Singular Noun + 's

To show that ONE person, animal, or entity owns something, add an apostrophe followed by 's':

[Singular Owner: Noun] + 's + [Item Possessed]

- Singular Ownership: the customer's order (one customer), the doctor's signature (one doctor), the company's policy (one company).
- Names Ending in -s: For singular names ending in -s, add 's in modern functional English (e.g. James's locker, Charles's coat).
- No Ownership = No Apostrophe: Simple plurals do not take an apostrophe (e.g. "Five customers waited" NOT "Five customer's waited").
- Its vs It's: Its (no apostrophe) shows possession (e.g. "The cat licked its paw; the printer lost its power"). It's ALWAYS means it is.

× Common Mistake

We found the drivers phone in the managers office near the staff lockers.

✓ Correct Sentence

We found the driver's phone in the manager's office near the staff lockers.

Why: Added apostrophes to show singular ownership: one driver owned the phone ('driver's'), and one manager occupied the office ('manager's').

A Tick the correct sentence

1 Which sentence correctly indicates that an umbrella belongs to one customer?

- ☐ The customers umbrella was left at reception.
- ☐ The customer's umbrella was left at reception.

UNIT 10 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

10 Plural Nouns — Regular (-s, -es) and Irregular (children, men, feet)

Sam

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Workplace Facilities & Welfare Provision Audit

★ B Pluralisation Rules: Regular Suffixes vs Irregular Roots

Plural nouns represent more than one person, place, or thing:

Regular: Noun + -s • Hissing Sounds (-ch, -sh, -s, -x, -z): Noun + -es • Irregular: Root Vowel Shift

- Standard Rule (-s): desk → desks, tool → tools, computer → computers.
- The -es Rule: When a singular noun ends in -s, -ss, -sh, -ch, or -x, add -es to create a pronounceable syllable (e.g. box → boxes, branch → branches, bus → buses).
- Top Irregular Plurals: Never add -s to nouns that change their root vowels or forms: man → men, woman → women, child → children, foot → feet, tooth → teeth, person → people.
- No Apostrophe for Plurals: Never use an apostrophe to form a simple plural (e.g. "apple's for sale" is WRONG; write "apples").

× Common Mistake

All fire boxs must be checked by the two security mans and their childs.

✓ Correct Sentence

All fire boxes must be checked by the two security men and their children.

Why: Added -es to 'box' ('boxes') and replaced incorrect pluralisations 'mans' and 'childs' with proper irregular forms 'men' and 'children'.

A Tick the correct sentence

☐ benchs ☐ benches ☐ bench's

2 Select the correct plural form of 'woman':

UNIT 11 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

11 Plural Nouns ending in -y to -ies vs vowel+y

Abdul

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Corporate Compliance & Human Resources Directives

★ B The Consonant-Y vs Vowel-Y Orthographic Rule

Look at the letter immediately before the final 'y' to determine the plural spelling:

[Consonant + Y] → Drop 'y', add -IES (e.g. factory → factor ies)

[Vowel + Y] → Keep 'y', add -S (e.g. day → day s)

- Consonant + Y: company → companies, policy → policies, delivery → deliveries, category → categories, facility → facilities.
- Vowel + Y (a, e, i, o, u + y): delay → delays, journey → journeys, key → keys, holiday → holidays, display → displays.
- Common Pitfall: Never write delaiyes or companys. Check the preceding letter every single time!

× Common Mistake
All local deliverys were postponed because both companys updated their internal policys.

✓ Correct Sentence
All local deliveries were postponed because both companies updated their internal policies.

Why: Since 'delivery', 'company', and 'policy' each end in a consonant + y (r-y, n-y, c-y), the 'y' changes to '-ies'.

A Tick the correct sentence

1 What is the correct plural form of 'company'?

☐ companys ☐ companies ☐ company's

2 Choose the correct plural form of 'holiday':

☐ holidays ☐ holidies ☐ holiday's

UNIT 12 • CORE FOUNDATIONS

12 Apostrophes with Regular Plural Nouns (The managers' meeting)

Priya

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Executive Boardroom & Staff Noticeboard

B Plural Possession Architecture: Regular Plurals Ending in -s Take Only an Apostrophe

When showing that a PLURAL group ending in -s owns something, place the apostrophe AFTER the -s:

[Plural Owners Ending in -s] + ' (apostrophe only) + [Item / Event Owned]

- Regular Plural Ownership: the managers' meeting (meeting of multiple managers), the drivers' rest room (room for all drivers), the teachers' staff room.
- Singular vs Plural Contrast:
  - The worker's lunch = belonging to ONE worker.
  - The workers' lockers = belonging to MANY workers.
- Irregular Plurals (men, women, children, people): Because they do NOT end in -s, treat them like singular nouns: add 's (e.g. the children's ward, the women's changing room, the people's choice).

× Common Mistake

The supervisor inspected the driver's rest area and the apprentice's toolboxes.

✓ Correct Sentence

The supervisor inspected the drivers' rest area and the apprentices' toolboxes.

Why: Moved the apostrophe to after the 's' ('drivers'', 'apprentices'') because multiple drivers share the rest area and multiple apprentices own the toolboxes.

A Tick the correct sentence

- ☐ the supervisor's briefing
- ☐ the supervisors' briefing
- ☐ the supervisors briefing's

2 Choose the correct punctuation for a cloakroom used by many nurses:

- First Person / Plural: "We record temperatures every hour; they sanitize the surfaces."
- Third Person Singular: Always add -s or -es for singular subjects (e.g. "The nurse administers medication; the supervisor inspects the fire doors.").
- Verbs ending in -ch, -sh, -s, -o: Add -es (e.g. he watches, she washes, the motor passes, he does, she goes).

× Common Mistake

Every morning, the care assistant empty the laundry bin and check the call alarms.

✓ Correct Sentence

B Present Continuous Architecture: Auxiliary (be) + Present Participle (-ing)

Form the present continuous using the auxiliary verb 'to be' plus the base verb ending in '-ing':

[Subject] + [am / is / are] + [Base Verb + -ing]

- I → am: "I am updating the network security credentials now."
- He / She / It / Singular Noun → is: "The engineer is replacing the router; software is downloading."
- We / You / They / Plural Noun → are: "Technicians are testing the fiber-optic cable connection."
- Spelling Rules for -ing:
  - Drop silent 'e': configure → configuring, write → writing.
  - Double consonant after single short vowel: run → running, stop → stopping.

× Common Mistake

Currently, the IT technician updating the server and two engineers is running diagnostic tests.

✓ Correct Sentence

Currently, the IT technician is updating the server and two engineers are running diagnostic tests.

Sam

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Accident Log & HSE Official Investigation

★ B Past Simple Regular Suffixes: -ed Spelling Mechanics

Add -ed to the base form of regular verbs to describe completed past actions:

Regular: Verb + -ed • Ends in -e: Verb + -d • Consonant-Vowel-Consonant (CVC): Double Final Letter + -ed • Consonant + y: Change to -ied

- Standard Addition: inspect → inspected, check → checked, report → reported, clean → cleaned.
- Ends in Silent -e: Add only -d (e.g. arrive → arrived, close → closed, operate → operated).
- 1-Syllable Short Vowel (CVC): Double final consonant (e.g. slip → slipped, stop → stopped, plan → planned, drop → dropped).
- Consonant + y: Change 'y' to 'i' and add -ed (e.g. carry → carried, tidy → tidied, rely → relied).

× Common Mistake

Yesterday, the worker sliped on the wet floor, so we stoped the line and carryed him to medical.

✓ Correct Sentence

★ B Irregular Past Morphology: Root Changes (No -ed)

Irregular verbs completely change their form in the past simple:

- Top Workplace Irregular Past Forms:

  - leave → left, hear → heard, speak → spoke, break → broke, bring → brought.
  - meet → met, understand → understood, know → knew, spend → spent, send → sent.
- Fatal Non-Standard Pitfalls: Never use seen for saw without 'have/had' (say: "I saw the intruder" NOT "I seen the intruder"). Never say "He done it" (say: "He did it").

× Common Mistake

Yesterday, I seen the broken lock and writed an incident report before the manager come in.

B Future Form Architecture: Planned Intentions vs Promises / Spontaneous Decisions

Select your future tense construction based on whether the action was pre-planned:

[Be + Going to + Verb] → Prior Decision / Planned Intention • [Will + Verb] → Instant Decision / Firm Promise

- 'Going to' for Pre-Planned Intentions: "The management team is going to review departmental budgets next month." (Decided beforehand).
- 'Will' for Spontaneous Decisions & Offers: "The phone is ringing; I will answer it."
- 'Will' for Formal Promises & Guarantees: "We will deliver your furniture by Friday at 17:00."
- Grammatical Trap: Never omit the auxiliary verb with 'going to' (do not say: "We going to inspect"; write: "We are going to inspect").

× Common Mistake

Next week, the contractor going to install new windows and we will definitely completed on time.

✓ Correct Sentence

Next week, the contractor is going to install new windows, and we will definitely complete the project on time.

18 Subject-Verb Agreement — Singular vs Plural (is/are, was/were)

Marcus

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Formal Disciplinary & Incident Record

★ B Subject-Verb Concord: Matching Number and Person

A singular subject takes a singular verb; a plural subject takes a plural verb:

[Singular Subject] → is / was / has / does • [Plural Subject] → are / were / have / do

- Present Tense: "The manager is satisfied; the employees are ready."
- Past Tense: "The apprentice was punctual; the technicians were delayed."
- Intervening Prepositional Phrases: Words between the subject and verb do not change the subject's number (e.g. "The box [of spare fuses] is heavy" — 'box' is singular!).
- Compound Subjects Joined by 'and': Take a plural verb (e.g. "David and Emma were present at the hearing.").

× Common Mistake

Both witnesses was interviewed by the panel, but the supervisor were absent.

✓ Correct Sentence

Both witnesses were interviewed by the panel, but the supervisor was absent.

Why: Changed 'was' to plural 'were' to match 'both witnesses', and 'were' to singular 'was' to match 'the supervisor'.

19 Subject-Verb Agreement with There is / There are

Sarah

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Inventory Audit & Stock Discrepancy Bulletin

★ B Existential Agreement: The True Subject Follows the Verb

In sentences opening with 'There is' or 'There are', the word 'There' is merely a placeholder; the verb matches the noun that follows:

There is / There was + [Singular Noun / Uncountable Noun] • There are / There were + [Plural Noun]

- Singular / Uncountable: "There is a severe leak in Bay 2; there is water on the floor."
- Plural: "There are forty parcels waiting in the holding area; there were three discrepancies."
- Spoken English Trap: In casual speech, people frequently contract 'There's' for plurals (e.g. "There's three boxes"). In Functional Skills Level 1 writing, this is an agreement error. You MUST write: "There are three boxes."

× Common Mistake

There is fifty damaged cartons in Bay 1 and there was no forklift drivers available.

✓ Correct Sentence

There are fifty damaged cartons in Bay 1 and there were no forklift drivers available.

Why: Changed 'there is' to 'there are' (matching plural 'fifty cartons') and 'there was' to 'there were' (matching plural 'drivers').

- Third Person (General Policy): "When employees enter the clean room, they must wash their hands."
- Unintended Pronoun Shift Pitfall: "If an employee feels unwell, you should inform your manager." → Fix: "If an employee feels unwell, they should inform their manager."

× Common Mistake

Prefixes — Un-, Dis-, Mis-, Re-

Sam

A The Concept in Everyday Use: Quality Control & Manufacturing Defect Log

★ B Prefix Mechanics: Modifying Root Words Without Altering Base Spelling

A prefix attaches to the front of a base root word without changing the root's spelling:

UN- = Not / Reverse • DIS- = Opposite / Away • MIS- = Badly / Wrongly • RE- = Again / Back

- UN- (Not / Undo): unsafe, unpack, unclear, unauthorized, unlocked.
- DIS- (Opposite): disconnect, disinfect, disagree, disable, disappear.
- MIS- (Wrongly / Inaccurately): misread, miscalculate, misplace, misunderstand, mislabel. (Notice: mis + spell = misspell with double 's'!).
- RE- (Again): rebuild, reload, retest, restart, refund, replace.
- The Golden Spelling Rule: Simply glue the prefix directly onto the unchanged root word: un + happy = unhappy; dis + satisfied = dissatisfied (keep both 's's!).

× Common Mistake

The technician dissconnected the cable because the container was misslabelled and uncomplete.

✓ Correct Sentence

The technician disconnected the cable because the container was mislabelled and incomplete.

Why: Corrected 'dissconnected' (dis + connect has only one 's'), 'misslabelled' (mis + label has only one 's'), and replaced 'uncomplete' with proper 'incomplete'.

-FUL = Full of (Always ONE 'l'!) • -LESS = Without (Always TWO 's's!) • -LY = Adverb (How something is done) • -MENT = State or result of action

- The -FUL Rule: The suffix -ful has ONLY ONE 'L': careful, helpful, successful, grateful, stressful. Never spell it with -full!
- The -LESS Rule: careless, spotless, endless, painless.
- The -LY Rule: Turns adjectives into adverbs: quick → quickly, polite → politely, careful → carefully (notice: careful + ly = carefully with two 'l's!).
- The -MENT Rule: Creates nouns from verbs: develop → development, manage → management, equip → equipment. Keep the silent 'e' in most cases!
