The Movie Scene Opens

The Movie Scene, a new leisure complex, has just opened on the edge of town. This complex has been paid for by the council and donations from companies in the area.

The Movie Scene has three cinema screens, a bowling alley and a variety of cafés. It will provide much needed leisure facilities for people, including families with children. It will also employ more than a hundred people from the town and surrounding area. For more details, see www.themoviescene.web.

There are still jobs available in the cafés at The Movie Scene.

Contact the Manager if you are interested.

Come to The Movie Scene – your new leisure complex

This recently opened leisure complex offers entertainment and fun for the whole family. With three cinema screens, a bowling alley and three cafés, there is something for everyone. Book now and enjoy time out with your family and friends.

Your favourite films

There is one super large screen showing films from 10.00 am till late at night. All major blockbusters are shown, as well as 3D films and all-time classics. Look out for special events such as singalong screenings and Q and A sessions with actors and directors. There are also two smaller screens where you can view movie marathons and foreign films. Enjoy popcorn and ice-creams from The Kiosk Snack Bar while you watch your favourite film. Fill your water bottle at The Kiosk at no cost.

Bowl a strike

The bowling alley has ten lanes - hire all equipment and shoes on the day. People of every age can enjoy bowling and it's a great place for group outings. You can also enjoy a game of table tennis with your friends and family (no charge) on the tables next to the bowling lanes. The Pins Snack Bar serves a variety of tempting dishes and will provide special occasion cakes on request.

For younger guests

Bring your children – they are very welcome at The Movie Scene. There are discount cinema tickets for under sixteens at weekends and children are half price when bowling with two adults. It's the perfect place for youngsters' parties. The Silent Movie Café has a kids' menu and is next to a free play area for children under eight. You can enjoy a coffee while your children play.

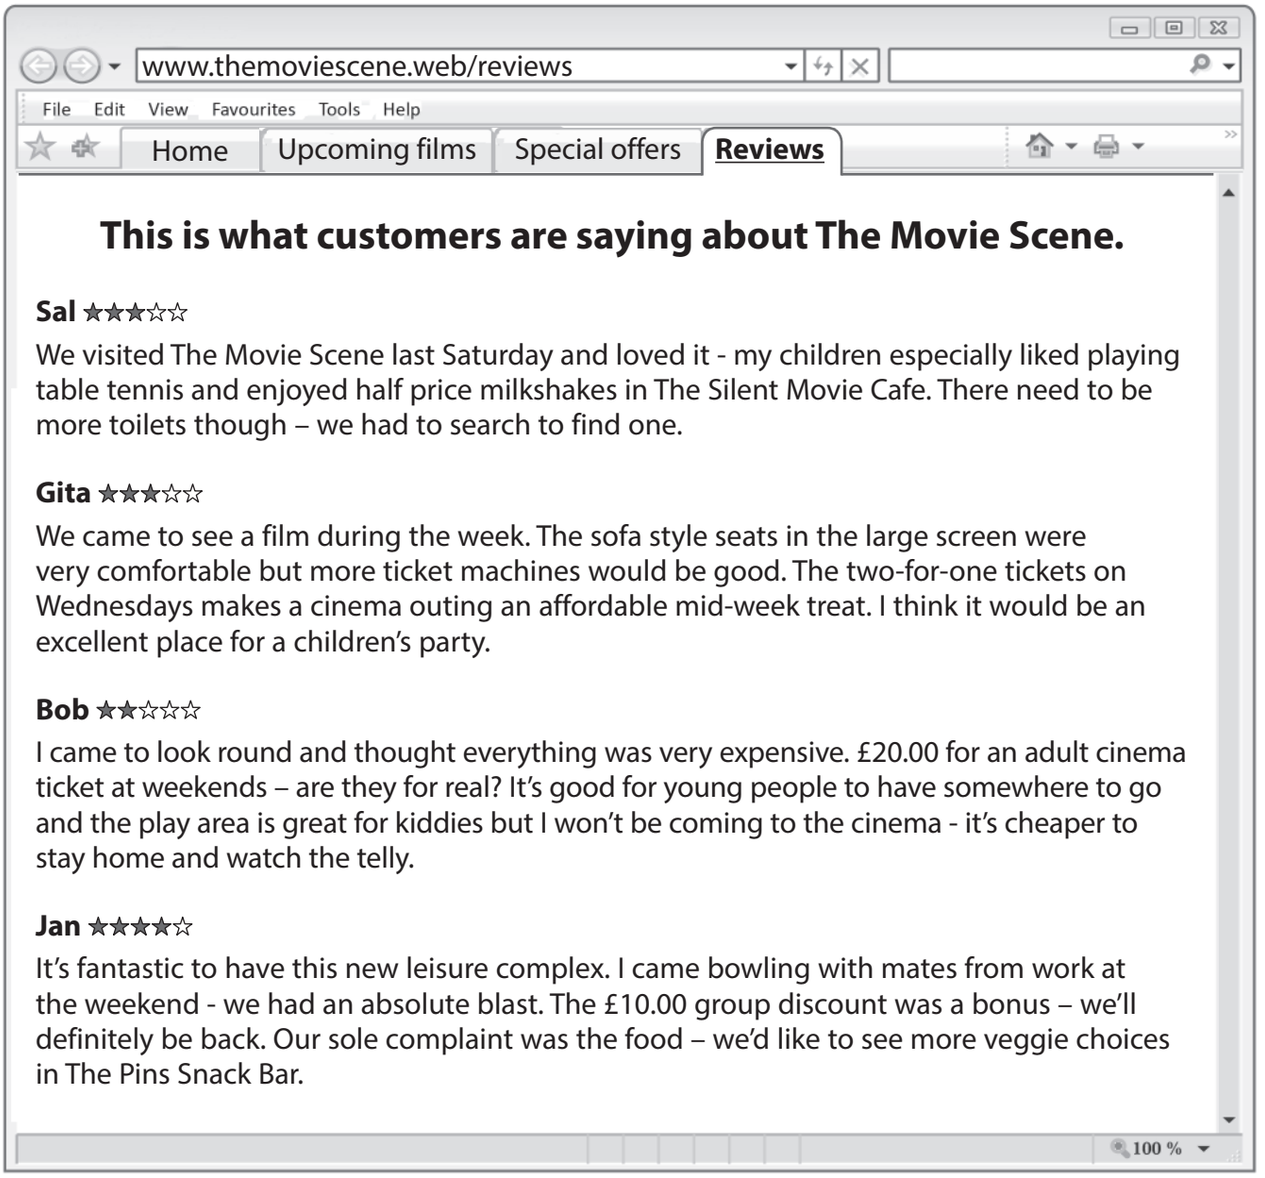

Sign up

Getting The Movie Scene loyalty card costs absolutely nothing. Just register online and you'll receive a regular newsletter about upcoming events, special rates and vouchers for the cafés. So sign up now and plan your first visit today.
