Article

MFS ACTIVE READING GUIDE · TEXT B (ARTICLE: QUESTIONS 4·9, 15)

· Purpose: Article on football schemes for children (Q4), The Lionesses (Q9a) & Equal Game (Q9b).

· Key: Crimson = Q4 Children's Schemes | Green = Q9 Headings | Gold = Q8 Quotes | Navy = Q15

What a game!

Always popular

Football is the most popular spectator sport in the UK. More than 26 million people watched on TV as England's men's team played in the World Cup in 2018. It's also the most popular sport to take part in - more than 2 million adults play twice a month. Almost 50% of all of 11 to 15-year olds and 30% of all 5 to 10-year olds also play football. Schemes such as Premier League Primary Stars encourage young children to get involved.

Q4: Primary Stars

Q9a: Heading

The Lionesses

In 2019, millions of people watched the England women's team, the Lionesses, play in the semi-final of the Women's World Cup. What an exciting match that was! Their success has inspired interest in women's football and the Lionesses are excellent role models. Programmes such as Wildcats and Shooting Stars give girls the opportunity to play football from a young age. Parents and carers can support their children by taking them to practices.

Q4: Wildcats

Q8a: Good examples

Access for everyone

Q8b: Paid players

The Equal Game project, supported by professional footballers, aims to inspire everyone to get involved in football. Every day people with disabilities enjoy playing football – for example, blind football and wheelchair football. The beautiful game can be adapted so everyone can take part!

Q9b: Heading

All kinds of opportunities

There are plenty of opportunities to get involved in football, through local clubs and sports centres. There are football teams in most areas. There are also five-a-side matches, often held indoors, and informal kickabouts in local parks. Football in the Community offers schemes especially for children.

What to do

Look at the FA website for more information. Check your local area for amateur teams. There may be opportunities to play football through your college or workplace. Friends and family can support young players by finding kit sponsors or doing the team's laundry – so get that washing machine on! The best support for children is showing an interest and sharing the fun!
