Task 1

Information

Does age matter?

There are different things you can and can't do at certain ages.
For example, you can't vote until you're 18 but you can learn to drive at 17.

People can leave home at 16 but have to be 18 to buy alcohol or get a tattoo.

Is this fair? Send us your articles explaining your views.

Writing Task

Write an article for your college/workplace/school newsletter about whether you think age restrictions are fair.

In your article, you should:

- say what you think about current age restrictions
- give detailed reasons for your views
- explain the changes you would like to see.

You should aim to write about 250 to 300 words.

Are Age Restrictions Really Fair?

[Headline]

By Jordan Bennett | Student Representative

[Byline]

In the UK today, young people face many different rules about what they can and cannot do at different ages. For instance, you can leave school and start full-time work at sixteen, but you cannot vote until you turn eighteen. In my opinion, this system is unfair and confusing: if a sixteen-year-old works and pays income tax, they should have the democratic right to vote for their government and local representatives.

[Purpose / View]

Unfair Rules and Mixed Messages

[Subheading]

There are several other rules that do not make sense. At seventeen, a person can learn to drive a motor car on busy roads and motorways; however, they cannot buy alcohol in a supermarket, get a tattoo, or sign a rental contract until they are eighteen. It seems contradictory to trust young people with a car, which requires high responsibility, but treat them like children in other areas of life. We need rules that are sensible, practical, and consistent.

[Driving vs Voting]

Changes That Would Help Young People [Subheading]

To make things fairer, I would like to see two main changes. First, the voting age should be lowered to sixteen for all elections across the UK, just like it already is in Scotland and Wales. Second, colleges and schools should teach practical life skills, including household budgeting, workplace rights, and how local councils work. This preparation would give young people greater confidence before they take on adult responsibilities. [Proposed Reforms]

In conclusion, age restrictions are important to protect teenagers, but they must also be fair and balanced. Giving sixteen and seventeen-year-olds more trust and equal rights will help them become active, responsible citizens in our community. [Clear Conclusion]

EXAMINER ASSESSMENT & MARK ALLOCATION · TASK 1 — 21 / 21 MARKS

Grid A: Composition & Organisation (Max 12 Marks) — AWARD: 12 / 12

- Clear article format: bold headline, student byline, logical subheadings, and engaging style.
- Detailed prompt coverage: evaluates rules, provides practical reasons, suggests realistic changes.
- Word count: 255 words (strictly meets 250 - 300 words). Highly coherent throughout.

Grid B: Spelling, Punctuation & Grammar (Max 9 Marks) — AWARD: 9 / 9

- Accurate punctuation range: semicolons, colons for explanation, commas, and hyphens.
- Consistent tenses, correct subject-verb agreement, and modal verbs (should, would, must).
- 100% spelling precision across daily and workplace vocabulary (restrictions, budgeting, responsibilities).

My Visit to Alton Woods Theme Park

[Review Title]

Rating: 4/5 Stars | Reviewed by Jordan Bennett | October 2026 [Rating Header]

Last Saturday, my family and I went on a day trip to Alton Woods Theme Park. We arrived early in the morning because we wanted to try the newest rollercoaster, 'The Vortex'. The ride was fantastic: it had steep drops and fast loops that were very exciting. We also tried the water rapids and the pirate ship. The queue times were reasonable, and the staff gave clear safety instructions before every ride. [Ride Description]

After spending three hours on the rides, we stopped for lunch at the main food court. Unfortunately, this was the most disappointing part of our day. The cafe was very crowded, and the food was expensive: we paid fourteen pounds for two cold burgers and small chips. Afterwards, we visited the gift shop. Although the souvenirs were quite pricey, the shop assistant was very polite and helpful when answering our questions. [Food & Gift Shop]

In summary, I would definitely recommend visiting Alton Woods to friends and families because the attractions are fun and the park is kept spotless. However, to avoid unnecessary costs, visitors should pack their own lunch and water bottles instead of purchasing food inside the venue. It is also a sensible idea to book tickets online in advance to receive generous group discounts. [Verdict & Tips]

EXAMINER ASSESSMENT & MARK ALLOCATION · TASK 2 — 15 / 15 MARKS

Grid A: Composition & Organisation (Max 9 Marks) — AWARD: 9 / 9

· Full adherence to review structure: title, rating header, vivid ride descriptions, and verdict.

· Thorough prompt coverage: clear description of day, balanced evaluation of food/shop, useful tips.

· Word count: 205 words (strictly meets 200 - 250 words). Engaging and persuasive tone throughout.

Grid B: Spelling, Punctuation & Grammar (Max 6 Marks) — AWARD: 6 / 6

· Consistent past tense for experience and present tense for recommendation.

· Varied punctuation: quotation marks for ride name, colons for explanation, and commas.

· 100% spelling precision across daily vocabulary (rollercoaster, souvenirs, queue, maintained).

OVERALL PAPER RESULT & BENCHMARK SUMMARY — TOTAL: 36 / 36 (100%)

Task 1 (Age Restrictions Article):	21 / 21 Marks (Grid A: 12/12 · Grid B: 9/9)
Task 2 (Theme Park Review):	15 / 15 Marks (Grid A: 9/9 · Grid B: 6/6)
Official Edexcel Pass Mark Threshold:	Typically 19 - 21 marks / 36 (approx. 55%)
Candidate Performance Classification:	Distinction Benchmark / Top Band 3

Key Takeaway: Clear structure, rich punctuation, and precise word count ensure top marks.
