The Property

A lovely old Cornish stone cottage, a mile from the village of Upton on the edge of Bodmin Moor. The cottage, accessed by a private drive is situated in a sheltered, peaceful valley.

Although fully restored and modernised, the cottage still has traditional features such as stone floors, inglenook fireplaces and beautiful exposed wooden beams.

The enclosed garden, bordering a stream, is a magical place to relax and absorb the scent of the roses whilst enjoying a cream tea or drink.

Off road parking. The cottage is reached via a narrow lane, and is best suited to small to medium sized cars.

Accommodation

It has a sitting room and a separate dining room. Both have a wood burner so you can be warm and cosy.

There is a fitted kitchen with an electric cooker, microwave and fridge freezer. There are three good-sized bedrooms plus a family bathroom. Perfect for a family or friends wanting to get away from it all.

Electricity, wood for burners, bed linen and towels are included in the rent. One well-behaved dog welcome.

Location

Upton is a small village on the edge of Bodmin Moor. The village, 1 mile away, has a traditional 17th century pub serving good food, a Post Office and general store. There are some beautiful walks nearby through oak woodlands and pretty lanes, decorated with wild flowers.

Bodmin Moor offers plenty of interesting walks to keep visitors happy. There is easy access to the Moor's most striking features, including the Cheesewrings, the engine houses and the Caradon Hills. There is easy access to some of Cornwall's finest coastlines with rugged coves, sandy beaches and swimming or surfing.

Nearby Siblyback Lake offers angling and water sports, and there is trout fishing available on local rivers. Upton has an open-air theatre offering a varied programme during the summer season.

Reviews of White Rose Cottage, Cornwall

Garden
Beautiful place to stay. Fabulous welcome. The owner showed us the cottage on arrival. A cheerful fire was burning in the living room wood burner and tea was laid out, complete with cake and fresh flowers when we arrived. What a lovely greeting, especially in the dark. Cosy cottage with a fabulous garden by a stream.

Balbir and family: September

Secluded
It is very secluded, down some tight and winding lanes. You must contact the owners on arrival in the village so they can meet you and guide you to the property. You would have difficulty finding it on your own in the dark! Parking is very awkward. We had some friends to stay and could not get two cars into the space. This is a very old cottage with uneven stone floors, narrow steep stairs and some damp and condensation. It was very cramped. Not exactly modernised as described in the brochure.

Sarah: April

Cosy
My wife and I had chosen it as we were looking for a dog-friendly cottage in Cornwall. This fit the bill perfectly, with a dedicated garden. The setting is beautiful and tranquil. The cottage itself was lovely but parking was problematic. Each reception room had a wood-burning stove. A generous supply of wood is provided, but if you use the stoves a lot, you will need to buy more. There is no telephone and mobile service is very poor, but there is Wi-Fi. There's plenty to do and it's good for dog walking and hiking. We had a great week, apart from some poor weather and the cold, but what do you expect in Cornwall in March! Thanks for a truly wonderful stay.

Kevin: March

Potter
Wonderful weather! It rained all the time and it was very cold. It was so nice to have a warm fire to welcome us when we arrived. We would recommend it to those who want to laze about or potter round in the nearby woods and fields with the dog. If that suits you, this is the place.

Stuart: June
