Activity 1: Write an article for your community action group magazine.

(Marks available: 20)

You're a volunteer for a local community action group.

Recently a local beauty-spot has been vandalised and you have offered to write an article about the incident for the next edition of the group's magazine.

Your article needs to detail the following:

- the incident itself – the who/what/why/when and how
- an appeal to readers to help out with a clean-up operation
- how the community can work together to prevent things like this happening again.

One document has been provided which contains useful content for the activity. You may choose to select and use any of the material for your writing.

You may also use your own ideas to complete this activity.

Activity 2: Write a letter of complaint to an airline company.

(Marks available: 20)

You recently had to catch an early morning flight for a work meeting.

The flight was delayed for several hours and then it was cancelled with no information given, at any point, as to the reason why. You do not feel that this is acceptable and have decided to complain to the airline.

Write a letter of complaint to the airline company. You should consider how you might persuade them to compensate you.

Address your letter to:

Task 1 Model Response

MFS Stepped Model Solution Continuation Sheet (Overflow-Safe Layout)

18 Elm Street
Leeds
LS1 3AB

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to share my views on the matter raised in the brief (Read the documents provided and complete the two writing activities: Present information/ideas concisely, logically,) and to respond to each key point.

Firstly, with regard to the main background details and key facts, clear communication and advance notice make a real difference to everyone affected.

Secondly, considering why this issue matters and who it affects, it is important that arrangements remain practical, fair, and easy to access.

In terms of practical actions and recommendations going forward, I would strongly encourage adopting a transparent timetable and inviting regular feedback.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I look forward to hearing your response.

Yours faithfully,
Sam Patel

Task 2 Model Response

MFS Stepped Model Solution Continuation Sheet (Overflow-Safe Layout)

Making Real Progress Together

Have you ever considered how directly the main background details and key facts affects our everyday routines? Write an article for your community action group magazine. You're a volunteer for a local community action group.

Looking Closer at the Issue

When we examine why this issue matters and who it affects, it becomes clear that small, well-planned steps can achieve lasting results. Everyone benefits when information is accessible and people feel encouraged to take part.

Practical Next Steps

By focusing on practical actions and recommendations going forward, we can turn good ideas into reality and make a positive difference together.
