Document 1

Be on TV BBC

Eat the World

A brand new BBC series is looking for people who love home-cooking. We want to find people from different communities all over the UK to prepare their favourite national or regional dishes in their own homes and share their stories.

This series is a celebration of Britain through food. We hope to meet home cooks and discover the different cultures and cuisines that thrive throughout the UK.

We want to hear about customs, family traditions and personal stories.

Activity 2: Write an article.
(Marks available: 20)

There is a problem with stray dogs in your area. You recently attended a community meeting and found out that since April 2016 all dogs must be microchipped by law.

Write an article for a local newsletter that:

- explains the local problem
- gives your opinions on the change in law
- persuades dog owners to adopt your way of thinking
- uses an appropriate format.

One document has been provided. The document contains useful content for the activities. You may choose to select and use any of the material for your writing.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to share my views on the matter raised in the brief (Read the documents provided and complete the two writing activities: Present information/ideas concisely, logically,) and to respond to each key point.

Firstly, with regard to the main background details and key facts, clear communication and advance notice make a real difference to everyone affected.

Secondly, considering why this issue matters and who it affects, it is important that arrangements remain practical, fair, and easy to access.

In terms of practical actions and recommendations going forward, I would strongly encourage adopting a transparent timetable and inviting regular feedback.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I look forward to hearing your response.

Yours faithfully,
Sam Patel
