Candidate A: Constantin — Presentation Prompt Cue Cards

Pearson Edexcel Functional Skills English Level 2 • Task 1 Exemplar
Topic: Dealing with Difficult Customers in Retail and Customer Service

■ CARD 1: INTRODUCTION & ROADMAP

- Thank Subi, welcome Thomas and Amara.
- Topic: Handling angry customers and de-escalating tense situations.
- Why it matters: Daily challenge in retail and frontline jobs.
- Roadmap: Why people get upset -> 3 Golden Rules -> Store Results.

■ CARD 2: WHY CUSTOMERS GET UPSET

- Root causes: Long queues, faulty products, feeling ignored by staff.
- Human insight: Most people don't start out wanting to argue.
- Survey fact: 70%+ of customers walk away due to rude staff, not price.

■ CARD 3: THREE GOLDEN RULES

- Rule 1: Listen actively without interrupting.
- Rule 2: Apologise for their frustration (shows empathy, not blame).
- Rule 3: Offer a practical solution (quick replacement, refund, voucher).

■ CARD 4: RESULTS & CONCLUSION

- Store results: Complaints dropped by 25% across 6 months.
- Staff impact: New team members feel confident and calm under pressure.
- Conclusion: Staying calm and listening is the secret to great service.
- Tutor Silence: Subi remains silent; DO NOT wait for tutor to prompt.
- Independent Q&A: Immediately thank audience and invite questions from Thomas and Amara.

■ CARD 5: ANTICIPATED Q&A DEFENCE

- If asked about abusive shouting (Thomas): Zero tolerance; stay calm, warn politely, call manager.
- If asked about returns with no receipt (Amara): No cash refund; offer replacement, voucher, or system lookup.
