6 Explain how the writer of Source A uses words and language techniques to persuade people to go on the Safari and Beach Tour.
You should provide examples from Source A in your answer.

[3 marks]

Persuasive, emotive words are repeated throughout like 'luxury' in order to emphasise the idea of a high class experience to the reader. The detailed listing of animals puts emphasis on the amount there is to see, for example 'black rhinos, ostriches, cheetahs'. This therefore encourages people to book. Additionally, the writer instills a confidence in Kandu travel in the reader, through words such as 'world-class experts' and 'experienced and professional team'. This makes the reader trust them.

14 Compare Source A and Source C in terms of what they say and how the material is conveyed.

You may wish to refer to the level of detail, presentation and language, formality, possible bias and how the writers come across.

[6 marks]

Both sources discuss animals, however Source A emphasises the positives of seeing animals through detailed listing, seen in 'black rhino, ostriches, cheetahs...' to encourage the reader to book a holiday. By contrast, Source C has a more informative tone when talking about the animals and its aim is to keep the visitors safe, using imperatives to do so, seen in 'Don't carry food as this may attract animals'.

Source A uses inclusive language in the first person such as 'Join us now' in an effort to persuade the reader, making them feel welcome on the trip. In contrast, Source C uses short sentences for clarity due to the purpose of the text being to keep the reader safe.

Both sources use direct address to appeal to the reader, but for different reasons. Source A uses it to make the reader feel involved and welcome on the trip, in order to persuade them to go, for example seen in "you spend your final few days in this extraordinary continent'. Whilst Source C also uses direct address, it uses it to get the reader to listen to their safety message and take it on board.
