APER

A Review of The Lion King

My favourite film is The Lion King. I do not remember how old I was when I first watched this film because I was so young. Since then, I have watched it hundreds of times. This can only happen with films that are very interesting.

The Story

The film begins with a lion, who is the king of a large area in Africa. He tells his son, Simba,

Examiner comments:

- The writer uses emotion effectively to explain why this film is their favourite
- The writer uses adverbs of time to tell the plot of the film concisely without giving too much information
- Use of subheadings and bullet points give effective structure to the review

Activity 2: Write an email

This activity has a possible 20 marks available.

Answer the question in the space provided.

There are some empty fields that your council would like to improve for the community. They are thinking about creating a wildlife area with paths for walkers and bikes.

Email the council at yourcouncil@biz.net with your ideas.

You could:

- give the advantages and disadvantages of this idea
- explain if you think it is a good idea and why
- suggest any ideas of your own.

Subject: Changes to the empty fields

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you today about the empty fields and the plan to make these into a place for wildlife and walkers. I think that it is a great idea, but there are some problems with this.

First of all, the wildlife area sounds beautiful. There are not many places to walk around our village. I think that there could be some problems with the wildlife and people walking their dogs, though. Even if the animals were protected, there is always the chance that they could be scared by dogs during the day or eaten by foxes at night-time.

A few years ago, some new apartments were built on the old cricket pitch. I would like these fields to be made into a new pitch. When there are no games being played, people will be able to walk across the pitch and those on bikes can use the paths. This would be a great opportunity to organise some cricket teams for children and adults. If the empty field was only made into a wildlife area, this wouldn't bring the community together like a good game of cricket.

Thank you for your time.

Regards,
William
